HIGHLIGHTING THE HOOSIERS

- The Hoosiers are ranked 24th in the USA Today/ESPN Top 25 Coaches Poll to start the 2013-14 season. They were ranked No. 1 to start the year last campaign and finished the season ranked seventh.
- The last time IU was ranked to start the year in back-to-back seasons was 2001-02 (22nd) and 2002-03 (21st).
- Potentially IU could play as many as 10 games against teams who are in the top 25, including three in the non-conference season visiting No. 7 Syracuse, playing No. 22 Notre Dame at the Crossroads Classic in Indianapolis, and possibly taking on No. 19 UConn in the 2K Classic in New York.
- IU is 56-16 during the last two years going 27-9 in 2011-12 and 29-7 in 2012-13. The Hoosiers are 25-11 in the Big Ten during that time.
- The Hoosiers claimed the Big Ten Championship (14-4) in 2013 for the first time since 2002, the first time outright since 1993 and earned their first-ever No. 1 seed in the Big Ten Tourney.
- IU finished No. 7 in the final Associated Press poll, the first time they finished the season inside the top 10 since 2002. The Hoosiers had seven wins against Top 25 competition and had three road wins against Top 10 opponents.

- Saw junior Victor Oladipo and sophomore Cody Zeller earn All-America honors giving IU two USBWA All- Americans in one season for the first time since 1976.
- - Saw senior Jordan Hulls (third team) and sophomore Cody Zeller (first team) become the first Hoosiers to earn Academic All-America honors since 1999.
  - Saw Zeller earn near unanimous Preseason Player of the Year honors.
  - Developed unheralded recruit Victor Oladipo from a player ranked 144th out of high school into a National Player of the Year (Sporting News, Rupp Award).
  - Oladipo is just the third player in IU history (Scott May, 1976 and Calbert Cheaney, 1993) to be named Sporting News National Player of the Year.

HIGHLIGHTING THE HOOSIERS

- Oladipo is also the second Hoosier (Dane Fife, 2002) to be named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year and the first to be named NABC Co-Defensive Player of the Year. He is a first-team All-American and first-team All-Big Ten pick.
- Saw junior Will Sheehey become the first Hoosier to earn Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year and freshman Yogi Ferrell named to the league's All-Freshman team. Both Sheehey and Ferrell played for Team USA at the World University Games.
- Indiana led the country in free throws made (672) (18.8 per game), third scoring margin (16.5), fourth in 3-point field goal percentage (40.8) and fifth in scoring (78.6).

- They were also eighth in field goal percentage (.482) and 11th in rebound margin (7.3).
- IU led the Big Ten and was ranked fifth nationally in home attendance (17,412) and sold out all 19 home games during the 2012-13 season.
- The 7-2 record in road games in the Big Ten was tied for the best road record among major college conference's in the country in 2012-13
- IU had four 1,000-point scorers, from 3 classes, on the court with Watford (1,730), Hulls (1,380), Zeller (1,157) and Oladipo (1,117).
- Tom Crean and his staff have recruited a 1,000-point scorer in each of his first four recruiting classes (2008-Verdell Joness III, 2009-Christian Watford and Jordan Hulls, 2010-Victor Oladipo, 2011-Cody Zeller.
- Men's basketball earned an APR Public Recognition Award for having the top score among all Big Ten teams with a perfect four-year mark of 1,000.
- Sixteen players recruited by Tom Crean have earned Indiana degrees, with four players earning them in less than four years.

- IU was ranked a national-best 11 weeks as the No. 1 team in college basketball in 2012-13.
- Christian Watford improved from a 31.9 percent three-point shooter as a freshman to 48.4 percent as a senior

- Christian Watford averaged double figures in each of his four seasons and finished at 13.1 points per game.
- Christian Watford made 504 free throws in 616 attempts in four years and never shot below 80.0 percent from the line

HIGHLIGHTING THE HOOSIERS

- Victor Oladipo improved from a 30.8 shooter from long range as a freshman to 44.1 percent as a senior.
- Victor Oladipo progressed from 7.4 points per game as a freshman to 13.6 points as a junior.
- Victor Oladipo set an IU singleseason record in steals with 78.
- Cody Zeller improved his rebounds from 6.6 as a freshman to 8.1 as a sophomore.
- Cody Zeller's two-year total of 475 free throws attempted is the second-most of any player during that span.
- Zeller's 359 free throws made over the last two years are the fourth most of any player in the country during that span.
- Cody Zeller set an IU record by making 59.1 percent of his shots during his two-year career.
- Jordan Hulls finished second on the IU career list with 254 three-point field goals made.

- In the last 2 years, IU has led all major conference schools in 3-pt shooting (41.6)

Tom Crean and his staff continue to restore and add to the great tradition the Indiana Basketball program has established for many years. During the past two years, he has led IU to a 56-16 record, the 2013 Big Ten Championship and back-to-back appearances for the Hoosiers in the Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1994. IU also spent 11 weeks as the No. 1 team in the nation a year ago, all of which seemed daunting when he inherited a program facing NCAA sanctions and the return of one scholarship player upon his hiring in April, 2008.

- Since coming to Indiana, he and his staff recruited one of the top 10 classes in the country for 2009, a top 15 class in 2011, the No. 6 class in 2012, and the No. 6 class for 2013. He has posted an 84-82 record in five seasons and has 13 wins over nationally ranked teams in the last three seasons. The Hoosiers are 56-16 the last two seasons.
- This past June, he saw Victor Oladipo selected second in the NBA Draft by the Orlando Magic and Cody Zeller picked fourth by the Charlotte Bobcats making them the highest two IU players have been selected in an NBA Draft in a single season. In addition, Verdell Jones III, Derek Elston, Jordan Hulls and Christian Watford are playing professionally overseas.
- He inherited a program that faced the loss of two scholarships with an APR score of 866. Last June, the Hoosiers received an APR Public Recognition Award and had the top score nationally and among all Big Ten teams with a perfect four-year mark of 1,000.
- In addition, every senior who has played for him at IU has earned his degree. Five, including Jordan Hulls, Derek Elston, Matt Roth, Tom Pritchard and Victor Oladipo earned their bachelor's degree in less than four years and all mentioned except Oladipo have left IU with master's degrees. In 14 years as a head coach, 43 of his seniors have graduated.

2012-13

- IU rallied from a five-point deficit with 54 seconds left at Michigan to post a 72-71 win over the Wolverines, earning the Hoosiers their 21st Big Ten title.
- IU won the title for the first time since 2002, and the first time outright since 1993 and their seven wins against nationally ranked teams in the regular season also was a national best.
- He was named NABC District 7 and USBWA District V Coach of the Year this season for his efforts.
- Led IU to the third most successful back-to-back seasons in school history (1975-76 and 1992-93).

- Guided IU to its first No. 1 seed in the Big Ten Tournament and earned the school's third No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament since 1980 and first consecutive appearances in the Sweet Sixteen for III since 1994
- Watched unheralded recruit junior Victor Oladipo mature from a raw athletic player into the Sporting News National Player of the Year and Rupp Award winner as the nation's Player of the Year.
- Oladipo is just the third player in IU history (Scott May, 1976 and Calbert Cheaney, 1993) to be named Sporting News National Player of the Year. Oladipo also is just the second Hoosiers (Dane Fife, 2002) to be named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year. He is a First Team All-American and a First Team All-Big Ten pick.
- Oladipo and sophomore Cody Zeller earned All-America honors giving IU two USBWA All-Americans in one season for the first time since 1976. The duo also was honored by AP and were members of 10-man Wooden All-American squad.
- Saw senior Jordan Hulls and sophomore Cody Zeller become the first Hoosiers to earn Academic All-America honors since 1999.
- Had Will Sheehey become the first Hoosier to win the Big Ten Sixth Man of the Year and also saw Yogi Ferrell named All-Freshman.
- Had four 1,000-point scorers on the court with senior All-Big Ten pick Christian Watford (1,730), Hulls (1,380), Zeller (1,157) and Oladipo (1,117) for the first time in IU history.
- Saw his squad post a Big Ten-high six student athletes on the league's All-Academic team.
- IU notched a national best among power conference's with a 7-2 road record.
- Saw IU post a win at No. 4 Michigan State, the highest-ranking road win in school history.
- Also posted an 81-68 road win at #10 Ohio State, the first road win against a ranked foe since 2002.

- The win over Michigan State gave Indiana four wins against teams ranked in the AP Top 10 at the time the game was played, the most in a single-season since 1992-93 season (six).
- Saw No. 3 IU defeat No. 1 Michigan at home, 81-73, in a game that featured the two highest ranked teams ever to play in Assembly Hall. The Hoosiers followed that up with a 72-71 win at Michigan on the final day of the regular season to win the Big Top crown.
- On Jan. 30, 2013, Indiana topped Purdue in West Lafayette by a score of 97-60, the third-largest margin of victory by the road team in a Big Ten Conference game. The loss was also the worst-ever loss for Purdue in Mackey Arena.
- Led the Big Ten in scoring, scoring margin, three-point field goal percentage and free throw percentage.
- Signee Noah Vonleh played in the McDonald's All-American game marking the third straight year that an Indiana recruit (Zeller, Ferrell) will play in the fabled event. Vonleh and signee Troy Williams also played in the Jordan Brand Classic All-Star game, a first for the Hoosiers.

2011-12

- Guided IU to its sixth-winningest season in school history with a 27-9 mark and a berth in the NCAA Tournament's Sweet 16 and a No. 13 national ranking.
- Crean was named National Coach of the Year by ESPN.com and Big Ten Coach of the Year by The Sporting News following the 2011-12 season.
- Led IU to a No. 7 and No. 8 national ranking in his fourth season and guided the Hoosiers to wins over the No. 1 (Kentucky), No. 2 (Ohio State) and No. 5 (Michigan State) teams this season, the first IU team to ever do so in the regular season. IU was ranked 16th and 17th in the final regular season polls.
- Led IU to the largest turnaround among major college conferences with a 15 1/2 game improvement, tying for the best in Big Ten history.
- In the win over Kentucky, junior Christian Watford's game winning 3-pointer was named Geico National Play of the Year and won an ESPY for Play of the Year.
- Saw freshman Cody Zeller earn AP All-American honors and had Watford earn All-South Region accolades at the NCAA Tournament. Zeller also earned All-District awards from the NABC and USBWA and was a second team All-Big Ten choice.
- Watford, junior Jordan Hulls, and sophomore Victor Oladipo earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors, and Oladipo was a member of the All-Defensive team.
- Saw IU lead the Big Ten in scoring, 3-point field goal shooting, field goal percentage and finish second in free throw percentage.
   The Hoosiers were second in the nation in 3-point percentage, fifth in overall shooting and 11th from the line.

AT MARQUETTE

 Recruited and coached future NBA players Travis Deiner, Lazar Hayward, Wes Matthews, Steve Novak, and Dwyane Wade.

- Over his final seven seasons at Marquette, he compiled an aggregate record of 160-68 (.702).
- He is a two-time recipient of the Ray Meyer Conference USA, NABC District XI and USBWA District V Coach of the Year awards, and in 2003 won the Coach Clair Bee Award as well as being named a finalist for the Naismith National Coach of the Year Award.
- In his nine years with the Golden Eagles, Crean's teams earned five NCAA Tournament bids, one more than the previous four Marquette coaches had in the 16 years prior to his arrival.
- Coached Dwyane Wade to the program's first conference Player of the Year award in 2003. Wade also went on to become the first Marquette player since 1978 to be named an AP first team All-American and finalist for the John Wooden Award.
- Dominic James was a first team all-conference selection in 2006-07 as well, while McNeal was named the conference's Defensive Player of the Year.
- In 2006, Steve Novak was a unanimous first team all-conference selection and went on to be selected by the Houston Rockets in the NBA Draft.
- Travis Diener's was an All-America selection in 2005 and was selected 38th overall by the Orlando Magic in the 2005 Draft and has also played for the Portland Trail Blazers and Indiana Pacers.
- The 2002-03 campaign was one of the finest in Golden Eagle history, as Marquette made a Final Four appearance for the first time since winning the NCAA Championship in 1977.
- MU won 27 games that year, 14 in conference play, thanks in part to the play of Wade in his All-America season. The Golden Eagles finished the regular season ranked No. 9 by the Associated Press and No. 6 in the ESPN/USA Today Top 25 poll and their .818 winning percentage was the program's best since 1977-78.
- Prior to his arrival in Milwaukee, Crean served under Tom Izzo on the Michigan State basketball staff for four seasons, holding the position of associate head coach the last two.
- Crean also served as the Spartans' recruiting coordinator, where he routinely lured some of the nation's top talent to East Lansing, including two-time Big Ten Player of the Year Mateen Cleaves and two-time first team All-Big Ten selection Morris Peterson.
- In Crean's four years on Izzo's staff, the Spartans put together an 88-41 record and made four consecutive postseason appearances, including a trip to the 1999 Final Four. In each of Crean's four seasons, MSU's win total increased, culminating with a 33-5 season and a 15-1 Big Ten ledger in 1999.
- Prior to his tenure at Michigan State, Crean spent the 1994-95 season as an assistant coach at Pittsburgh.
- He served as the associate head coach at Western Kentucky from 1990 to 1994, and in each of his final two seasons with the Hilltoppers, WKU earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament, including a Sun Belt Championship and a trip to the Sweet 16.

- Crean got his start in coaching on the Division I level in 1989-90, serving on Jud Heathcote's staff at Michigan State. That team posted a 28-6 record and earned a Sweet 16 trip after winning the Big Ten.
- A native of Mount Pleasant, Crean earned his bachelor's degree in parks and recreation with a minor in psychology from Central Michigan in 1989. While pursuing his degree, Crean coached basketball at Alma College and Mount Pleasant High School.
- Tom and his wife, Joani, are the parents of Megan, 18, Riley, 14, and Ainsley, 8.
- Joani's father, Jack Harbaugh, was a long-time college football coach who won a Division I-AA national championship while coaching at Western Kentucky.
- Joani's brother's John (Baltimore Ravens) and Jim (San Francisco 49ers) are two of the top head coaches in the NFL. Last year, the two guided their teams and squared off in a historic Super Bowl matchup which saw the Ravens win 34-31. John was an assistant coach with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1998-2006 after joining Cam Cameron's staff at Indiana for the 1997 season as a defensive backs/special teams coach. Jim, played quarterback at Michigan and for the Indianapolis Colts and is in his third year with the 49ers after spending four years as the head coach at Stanford.

2008-12: Assistant Coach 2012-Present: Associate Head Coach

- Tim Buckley is the senior member on Coach Crean's staff and will enter his sixth season with the Hoosiers.
- He has been a part of a staff which has rebuilt the Hoosiers back into the national spotlight as they advanced to back-to-back Sweet 16's and finished 13th and seventh in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll the last two years, respectively. Last year, IU was 29-7 and was 7-3 against nationally ranked opponents.
- Last year, IU won its first outright Big Ten title in 20 years, saw Victor Oladipo earn Sporting News National Player of the Year honors, boasted two first team All-Americans in Oladipo and Cody Zeller and saw both of them picked among the first four selections of the NBA DBaft.
- Indiana led the country in free throws made (672) and was third in scoring margin (16.5), fourth in 3-point field goal percentage (40.8), fifth in scoring (78.6), eighth in field goal percentage (.482) and 11th in rebound margin (7.3). Their 7-2 record in road games in the Big Ten was tied for the best road record among major college conference's in the country.
- The 2011-12 Hoosiers finished 27-9 and defeated the No. 1 (Kentucky), No. 2 (Ohio State) and No. 5 (Michigan State) ranked programs in one season. In addition, the staff saw Zeller earn All-American and Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors.
- In addition, IU led the Big Ten conference in scoring, field goal percentage and threepoint field goal percentage and posted a 15.5 game improvement in the standings, tying a Big Ten record.
- The Hoosiers finished second nationally in three-point field goal percentage, fifth in field goal accuracy and 11th in free throw percentage.
- Buckley, who was the head coach at Ball State from 2000-2006, returned to the Hoosier state in April 2008, as an assistant coach at Indiana after helping Marquette to a second round NCAA Tournament appearance in 2007-08. It was the second time that Buckley had been on Crean's staff at Marquette and will be the third Big Ten school that he has worked at in his 20-plus year career, which has included stops at lowa and Wisconsin.
- The Aurora, Illinois native was the top assistant on Crean's first ever Marquette squad in 1999-2000 when the Golden Eagles posted a 15-14 record that year and were selected to play in the National Invitation Tournament.
- He returned to Marquette after spending the 2006-07 season as an assistant coach under Steve Alford at Iowa. He helped guide the Hawkeyes to a 17-14 overall record.

- Buckley spent six seasons as the head coach at Ball State, where he compiled an overall record of 143-139. The squad posted an 18-12 record in his debut season and captured 23 victories in year two.
- The Cardinals claimed the Mid-American Conference West Division title in 2001-02 and went on to participate in the NIT where they made it to the Elite Eight of that event. The season was also highlighted by wins over No. 3 Kansas and No. 4 UCLA at the Maui Invitational.
- Before his first stint at Marquette, Buckley spent five seasons at BSU as an assistant before returning as program mentor. The Cardinals posted an overall record of 88-55 during his tenure as as assistant, competing in the 1995 NCAA Tournament and 1998 NIT. BSU won the MAC Tournament in 1994-95 and earned a share of the league title in 1997-98.
- His first experience in the Big Ten came at Wisconsin in 1993-94.
   The Badgers earned their first NCAA Tournament bid since 1947 that season, advancing to the second round and posting an overall record of 18-11.
- He began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant at Bemidji State from 1986-88 and moved to Rockford College as an assistant in 1988-89.
- He was tabbed head coach at Rockford in 1989 and reached 50 victories there faster than any coach in the school's history.
- He was the youngest coach in the nation during his debut campaign at Rockford and helped the squad to a 16-9 record, the first winning season for the school in seven years.

- Buckley has served on the Executive Committee for the Mid-American Conference, a regional committee for the NCAA and the Division III NCAA Tournament Committee.
- He served on the Board of Directors for Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Delaware County while living in Muncie, Ind.
- Buckley earned his bachelor's degree in communications in 1986 from Bemidji State and completed his master's work in administration of physical education at the University in 1988.
- He played two seasons of basketball at Waubonsee (IL) Community College before completing his career at Bemidji State.
   He was inducted into the Bemidji State Athletic Hall of Fame and the Waubonsee Community College Athletics Hall of Fame in 2012.
- Buckley and his wife, Shannon, have a daughter, Meredith (18).

- Steve McClain, who boasts more than 32 years of coaching experience on the collegiate level, is in his fourth year as a member of the Hoosiers coaching staff.
- He has been a part of a staff which has rebuilt the Hoosiers back into the national spotlight as they advanced to back-to-back Sweet 16's and finished 13th and seventh in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll the last two years, respectively. Last year, IU was 29-7 and was 7-3 against nationally ranked opponents.
- Last year, IU won its first outright Big Ten title in 20 years, saw Victor Oladipo earn Sporting News National Player of the Year honors, boasted two first team All-Americans in Oladipo and Cody Zeller and saw both of them picked among the first four selections of the NBA DBaft.
- Indiana led the country in free throws made (672) and was third in scoring margin (16.5), fourth in 3-point field goal percentage (40.8), fifth in scoring (78.6), eighth in field goal percentage (.482) and 11th in rebound margin (7.3). Their 7-2 record in road games in the Big Ten was tied for the best road record among major college conference's in the country.
- The 2011-12 Hoosiers finished 27-9 and defeated the No. 1 (Kentucky), No. 2 (Ohio State) and No. 5 (Michigan State) ranked programs in one season. In addition, the staff saw freshman Cody Zeller earn All-American and Big Ten Freshman of the Year honors.
- In addition, IU led the Big Ten conference in scoring, field goal percentage and threepoint field goal percentage and posted a 15 1/2 game improvement in the standings, tying a Big Ten record. The Hoosiers finished second nationally in three-point field goal percentage, fifth in field goal accuracy and 11th in free throw percentage.
- McClain came to IU after spending three seasons at Colorado, including the last two as associate head coach. During his time there, he played a prominent role in rebuilding the CU program and served as acting head coach during the absence of head coach Jeff Bzdelik for a portion of last season which saw CU finishing 15-16, including seven losses by six points or less. In addition, junior guard Cory Higgins earned All-Big XII honors and freshman guard Alec Burks was named Big XII Freshman of the Year. Burks also was drafted in the first round of the NBA Draft this past June.
- During his career as a coach, he has worked firsthand with several players who went on to play with or were drafted by NBA teams, including Kurt Thomas and Lee Nailon at TCU, Justin Williams and Josh Davis at Wyoming, Ben Davis and Shaun Vandiver at Hutchinson CC, and Harvey Grant at Independence CC.

- Prior to his time in Boulder, the 1984 graduate of Chadron State College served as the 19th head coach at the University of Wyoming from 1998-2007. For nine seasons, McClain led the Cowboy program through one of its most successful periods in school history, posting the fifth highest winning percentage in school history (57.7 percent) and achieving a 157-115 record, averaging 17 wins per season through his nine years.
- In four of his nine seasons, Wyoming appeared in postseason play, advancing to the second round in each of the 1999, 2002 (NCAA) and 2003 seasons. They also played in the first round of the 2001 NIT. In conference play, McClain's teams captured two of the first seven Mountain West Conference titles, sharing the title for the 2000-01 season and winning it outright in 2001-02. The outright title in 2001-02 was Wyoming's first outright championship in 20 years. Overall, the Cowboys finished in the upper half of the league in six of McClain's nine seasons.
- McClain coached two All-Americans during his stint Laramie. Josh Davis was an Associated Press Honorable Mention All-American in his senior season of 2001-02. Prior to the 2002-03 season, Marcus Bailey was one of only 50 players nationally named to the John R. Wooden Award Preseason All-America team. In five of the nine seasons that McClain coached in the MWC, at least one Cowboy earned All-Mountain West Conference first-team honors: Josh Davis (1999-2000 and 2000-01); Marcus Bailey (2000-01 and 2001-02); Uche Nsonwu-Amadi (2002-03); Donta Richardson (2002-03) and Jay Straight (2004-05).
- The high point of the Cowboys' return to national prominence was Wyoming's appearance in the 2002 NCAA Tournament, marking the school's first appearance since 1988. It was in that season that McClain engineered one of his best Cowboy teams, earning Coach of the Year honors from his fellow coaches, winning a school-best 22 victories (the most since 1987-88) and advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.
- His 2001-02 Cowboy squad broke two of the nation's longest winning streaks. With its 73-66 win over No. 6 Gonzaga in the opening round of the 2002 NGAA Tournament, Wyoming broke the Bulldogs 14-game winning streak, a then-school record. Earlier the year at Utah, the Cowboys defeated the Utes 54-46, breaking Utah's 48-game home win streak against conference opponents, which was the longest conference winning streak in the country.
- In the 2000-01 season, McClain earned Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year honors from CollegeInsider.com, and garnered the same honor from MWC media members for the 1999-2000 season.
- McClain and his Wyoming teams won 18 or more games five times with a trio of consecutive 20-win seasons from 2000-2003, marking the first time three straight 20-win seasons had been accomplished in 15 years on the Laramie campus.
- Also during his nine seasons, the Cowboys defeated three Top-25 ranked opponents -- No. 20 TCU on Jan. 14, 1999; No. 24 Utah on Feb. 28, 2000; and No. 6 Gonzaga on March 14, 2002.
- His Wyoming squads were consistent contenders in the conference race during his tenure. UW finished in the top half of the conference in six of McClain's nine seasons there.

- Prior to his head coaching experience in Wyoming, McClain was an assistant at Texas A&M in 1998, then served as an assistant coach at Texas Christian University from 1994-98. While at TCU, McClain helped lead the Horned Frogs to a Top-25 ranking an NCAA Tournament appearance in 1998 under head coach Billy Tubbs. During his tenure there, Kurt Thomas became just the third player in NCAA history to lead the nation in scoring and rebounding in the same season.
- The year prior to Tubbs' staff taking over in Fort Worth, TCU posted a record of 7-20. Three years later, the Horned Frogs posted a 22-13 record, advanced to the Championship Game of the 1997 Western Athletic Conference Tournament and played their way inthe Second Round of the National Invitation Tournament. In 1998, TCU joined the elite programs in the country, posting a 27-6 record and leading the nation in scoring at 97.2 points per game.
- The Horned Frogs earned an NCAA Tournament bid in 1998, and ended the season ranked No. 15 in the final Associated Press poll.
   TCU also became the first team in Western Athletic Conference history to go undefeated in league play, posting a 14-0 record in 1998 on way to winning the WAC Pacific Division title.
- Not only did McClain enjoy success as an assistant coach, but also he brought to Wyoming an outstanding record as a head coach. In 1994 as the head coach at Hutchinson Community College in Hutchinson, Kan., he won the National Junior College Championship in only his third season, and was named the National Junior College Coach of the Year.
- At the junior-college level, McClain compiled a 91-16 (.850) record in three seasons, and his teams were known as high-scoring squads. His 1994 National Championship team averaged 90 points per game on way to a 35-4 (.897) record. In 1992-93, the Hutch Dragons compiled a 29-5 (.853) record, averaged 92.6 points and ended the season ranked No. 11 in the NJCAA. His first season as head coach, 1991-92, Hutchinson posted a 27-7 (.794) record.
- Prior to becoming head coach at Hutchinson, McClain served as an assistant coach there for five seasons, helping guide the Dragons to the 1988 NJCAA National Championship. Before coaching at Hutchinson, he was also an assistant coach at Independence Community College in Independence, Kan. (1985); Sioux Empire Junior College in Iowa (1984); and his alma mater Chadron State College in Chadron, Neb. from 1982-84.
- Born August 15, 1962, McClain is a native of Orient, lowa, and is married to the former Kim Van Asselt of Hutchinson, Kan. They are the parents of a son, Dylan (10).

SCOTT DOLSON

Deputy Director of Athletics

Men's Baskethall Sport Administrator

Scott Dolson was appointed Deputy Director of Athletics in 2009 after spending seven years as the director of the IU Varsity Club. He oversees all external operations within the department including marketing, media relations, ticketing, game management, broadcast services, strategic partnerships and fundraising. Dolson also supervises several internal areas, including facilities and business operations, and is the sport administrator for Men's Basketball.

Under Dolson's stewardship, IU Athletics renegotiated a new 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports, and dramatically increased both student and general attendance at both football and men's basketball games. New football attendance records were set in 2010 and IU led the Big Ten in increased football attendance in 2012. In men's basketball, IU Athletics has sold more student-season tickets (12,400) than any other program in the country and overall attendance ranked ninth nationally in 2012-13.

Since 2008, Dolson has also ushered in an era of expansion with the construction of new state-of-the-art IU Athletics facilities. including the transformation of Memorial Stadium into a horseshoe layout; a 25,000 square foot strength and conditioning center (Jay and Nancy Wikinson Performance Center); a 25.800 square foot academic center (D. Ames Shuel Academic Center); the Henke Hall of Champions, a banquet and entertaining space celebrating achievements in IU Athletics: a new basketball practice facility with museum space to celebrate the tradition of Indiana Basketball (Cook Hall and the Pfau-Shine Legacy Court); and new baseball and softball stadiums highlighted with indoor hitting cages, locker rooms, suites and clubhouses (Bart Kaufman and Andy Mohr Fields).

In addition to his role as Deputy Director of Athletics, Dolson has maintained his leadership as the fourth director of the Varsity Club managing the athletic department's overall fundraising program for scholarships, annual giving, endowments and athletic facilities. Dolson led the department's first comprehensive athletics capital campaign. The five-year, "For the Glory of Old IU" campaign, which was completed in 2011, raised $93 million against an $80 million development goal. It also secured the largest single gift in the history of IU Athletics, a $15 million gift from Bill and Gayle Cook. Under his leadership, the IU Varsity Club's annual campaign for student-athlete scholarships also set new giving records for the last three years, most recently $11.9 million in 2012-2013. Dolson was also instrumental in securing two $10 million gifts from Larry and Lucie Glaubinger in support of the Glaubinger Athletic Endowment

The Michigan City, Indiana, native graduated from IU with a bachelor's degree in Management from the School of Public & Environmental Affairs. While doing his undergraduate work at IU, Dolson was a student manager for the IU Basketball program for four seasons, serving as the program's head manager in 1988. ### ALL-AMERICANS

EVERETT DEAN - 1921

Everett Dean was the first Hoosier to earn All-America honors. The 6-0 center averaged 10.7 points as a senior in 1921. With Dean in the lineup, the Hoosiers were 10-7 in 1919, 13-8 in 1920 and 15-6 in 1921. In his final season, Dean scored 21 points against Ohio State, the first IU player to reach 20 points since Dean Barnhart recorded 21 against Rose Poly in 1911. Academics were also high on Dean's list as he won the Big Ten medal of honor for academic and athletic excellence as a senior. In 1924, Dean returned to Indiana, this time as a coach. Over his 12-year coaching stint, Dean was 162-93 overall and 96-72 in Big Ten play.

JIM STRICKLAND - 1929

During the first eight games of his sophomore season in 1928, Jim Strickland scored only 15 points. But after the loss of top player Art Beckner, Strickland scored 19 points in his first start as IU destroyed Kentucky, 48-29. He went on to net 16 points in the Hoosiers 40-37 victory over Purdue and led IU to a share of the Big Ten title. One year later, Strickland became Indiana's second All-American. He tallied 120 points in 1929, including a game-high 20 in the Hoosiers' 37-36 overtime win over Minnesota.

BRANCH MCCRACKEN - 1930

Branch McCracken was a boost to Hoosier hoops from his arrival in 1927-28. In his first varsity year, McCracken totaled 171 points in 17 games, a 10.1 average. His presence helped Indiana to a 15-2 record and a share of the Big Ten title. Against Chicago, in his first league contest, McCracken exploded for 24 points helping IU to a 32-13 victory. His 24 points set an IU record for Big Ten play, one that would not be broken for another 10 years. In 1929, McCracken finished second in the Big Ten scoring race with 100 points. In his final season, McCracken netted 206 points and reached double figures on 11 occasions. He scored 146 points in Big Ten play, a new conference record. McCracken came back to Indiana to coach for 24 seasons, leading the Hoosiers to two national titles and four Big Ten crowns. His overall record was 364-174, 210-116 in the conference.

VERN HUFFMAN - 1936

Vern Huffman is the only Hoosier in history to be named to major All-American teams in both football and basketball. After injury kept him from the Indiana lineup in 1934-35, Huffman returned to lead the Hoosiers to an 18-2 record and their first conference crown since 1928. He contributed 95 points during his All-America season. Huffman was the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player for football and IU's Big Ten Medal winner.

BILL MENKE - 1940

Bill Menke was a key ingredient in the Hoosiers' 1940 NCAA Championship. Menke returned in 1941 for his final season and led Indiana to a 17-3 overall record. Indiana had a 27-game home winning streak before a loss to Wisconsin ended the streak and also the Hoosier hopes for a conference title and the possibility of a second-straight national title. Menke had a team-high 176 points that year, closing out his career with 530 total points. His three-year total broke the school record of 525 previously set by Branch McCracken.

ANDY ZIMMER - 1942

Andy Zimmer was only in his first season when the Hoosiers won the National Championship. Indiana's winning ways continued throughout his three years as the Hoosiers compiled a 52-12 record from 1939-1942. Indiana finished as runner-up in the conference in each of those seasons. Zimmer was the only retring starter in 1942 but still managed to lead a young, inexperienced squad to a 15-6 overall record, including a win over defending National Champion Wisconsin and eventual Big Ten champ Illinois. Zimmer scored 268 points for his career.

DON SCHLUNDT - 1953, 1954, 1955

The day Don Schlundt arrived in Indiana, he changed Hoosier Basketball forever. IU's first three-time All-American virtually rewrote the basketball record books. Building on an impressive hook shot, Schlundt went on to win three-straight Big Ten scoring titles. Among the records he held were 1,451 Big Ten points, most points in a game with 47, most career points with 2,192, highest season average at 27.1, most free throws in a game with 25, single-season field goal percentage at 50.4, career scoring average at 23.3 and most consecutive free throws in a game with 14. It took 32 years before Steve Alford would break Schlundt's point record. Schlundt helped lead the Hoosiers to a Big Ten title, an NCAA Championship, a No. 1 ranking in 1953 and a second conference title in 1954.

ARCHIE DEES - 1957, 1958

Archie Dees was the perfect successor to Indiana great Don Schlundt. After averaging 17.4 points in his first year, Dees went on to lead the Big Ten in scoring two years in a row. He guided the Hoosiers to two conference championships, a share of the title in 1957 and sole possession of the crown in 1958. Dees averaged 25.5 points in his senior season, making it the fifth time in six years that an IU player won the Big Ten scoring title. Dees became the first two-time Big Ten Most Valuable Player.

WALT BELLAMY - 1960, 1961

Walt Bellamy was the third straight All-American big man for the Hoosiers, following in the footsteps of Don Schlundt and Archie Dees. Bellamy led the team in rebounding with 15.2 per game and in scoring with 17.4 points per game as a sophomore. In his junior season, Bellamy averaged 22.4 points and 13.5 rebounds. He holds the top IU rebounding mark after averaging 17.8 boards during his final season. Indiana's three-time MVP set IU and Big Ten records in his final collegiate game with 33 rebounds and 28 points in an 82-67 win over Michigan. Bellamy also represented Indiana on the gold-medal U.S. Olympic team in 1960. He became the first Hoosier taken No. 1 in the NBA draft (Chicago) and the first Hoosier named NBA Rookie of the Year.

JIMMY RAYL - 1962, 1963

Jimmy Rayl had magical seasons for the Hoosiers as a junior and senior. After scoring 34 and 41 points in games early in his second season, Rayl exploded in a game against Minnesota. Scoring 25 points in the first half, Rayl recorded 48 points after leading a comeback from 11 points down with 10 minutes left to force overtime. His 20-foot shot with two seconds left in overtime gave IU the victory and lifted him to a Big Ten-record 56 points. He accomplished the feat once more, this time in regulation, during an IU rout of Michigan State. Rayl put up 48 shots, hit 23 field goals, and scored 56 points. All marks are still IU records. Throughout his junior and senior years, Rayl had a 43-game string of double-digit performances. Rayl was a two-time All-Big Ten team member.

DICK VAN ARSDALE - 1965

Dick Van Arsdale scored 292 points and captured 213 rebounds as a sophomore to begin a most impressive career at IU. His junior season took on a whole new level as Van Arsdale led Indiana in scoring with 535 points and in rebounding with 298. His senior season was also the last to be coached by the great Branch McCracken at Indiana. Van Arsdale finished his career with 1,240 points and 719 rebounds. He won IU's co-MVP award as a junior and senior and contributed to a gold medal performance at the World University Games. An Academic All-American, Van Arsdale went on to play 12 seasons in the NBA for New York and Phoenix.

TOM VAN ARSDALE - 1965

The only player who could have challenged Dick Van Arsdale as Indiana's top player through 1962-65 was his brother and identical twin Tom Van Arsdale. The two had almost identical stats throughout their three years and put in numerous identical performances. Tom finished his career with 1,252 points, just 12 more than his brother. Tom grabbed 723 career boards and led Indiana in scoring and rebounding during his sophomore and senior seasons. Both brothers had career scoring highs in the same game with Tom netting 34 points against Notre Dame as a junior. He received co-MVP with his brother in their final two seasons and was a member of the gold medal World University Games team. As was Dick, Tom was also an Academic All-American and played 12 seasons in the NBA, retiring with his brother from the Phoenix Suns after the 1976-77 season.

GEORGE MCGINNIS - 1971

In only one season with the Hoosiers, George McGinnis did what most college basketball players only dream about. Taking Indiana to a 17-7 record, the sophomore forward led the Big Ten in both scoring (29.9) and rebounding (14.9). He is one of just five players to do that in more than 40 years of conference records. His scoring average was also an IU record. McGinnis scored 20 or more points in 21 of his 24 college games, including an Indiana record 14 times in a row. He scored over 30 points on 12 different occasions, a Hoosier single-season record. The 1971 All-American went on to become a three-time NBA All-Star.

STEVE DOWNING - 1973

Steve Downing's totals in his first big college game were 28 points, 17 rebounds, and 10 blocked shots, Indiana's only recorded triple-double. His career continued as it started with Downing becoming the first All-American under Coach Bob Knight. Overcoming a knee injury, Downing led the Hoosiers to a Big Ten title in his final season, averaging 21.8 points in non-conference play and 14.7 during the Big Ten season. He averaged 24 points per game in the Hoosiers' last eight conference games. The conference champions were led by Downing in the quest for the NCAA title but fell short, losing 70-59 to UCLA in the Final Four. Downing was named All-Final Four, Big Ten MVP and chosen as the Boston Celtics' No. 1 draft pick. He won an NBA Championship with the Celtics

STEVE GREEN - 1974, 1975

Steve Green was a member of one of the greatest combination of players Hoosier fans have ever seen. He had a breakout season as a junior and was considered one of the best players in the Big Ten. IU's Most Valuable Player and an All-Big Ten selection, Green was Indiana's leading scorer with 16.7 points per game. He hit in double figures in 24 games. His senior season, Green helped lead a Hoosier team through an 18-game Big Ten schedule undefeated. The wins came by a record average winning margin of 22.8 points per game. Green went on to sign with Utah and then joined the Indiana Pacers for their first three seasons.

QUINN BUCKNER - 1975, 1976

One would think a perfect 18-0 conference record is something that only comes along once in a lifetime. Quinn Buckner and members of the Hoosier Basketball team from 1974-76 proved that history can repeat itself. Buckner's four-year career at Indiana featured four consecutive Big Ten Championships, two undefeated conference seasons, one unbeaten regular season and an NCAA title. It's captain as a junior and senior, Buckner was considered one of the greatest leaders the Hoosier backcourt has ever seen. Upon finishing his college career, Buckner helped lead the 1976 U.S. Olympic team to an 8-0 record and a gold medal. He went on to play 10 NBA seasons and in 1984 with the Boston Celtics, joined Jerry Lucas as the only players ever to be on championship teams in high school, college, the Olympics and the NBA. Only Magic Johnson has since completed that feat

SCOTT MAY - 1975, 1976

Scott May was another member of the Indiana dream team of 1976. An undefeated season, four Big Ten Championship rings and an NCAA title are just a few of the accomplishments under May's name. As a junior, the All-American helped lead Indiana to a perfect 18-0 conference record, only to break his arm in the final game of the regular season. Without May, the Hoosiers' tournament title dreams ended with a 92-90 Mideast Regional championship loss to Kentucky. May returned for his final season in perfect condition and proved it by helping IU to its one and only unbeaten season. The 1976 Player of the Year was the Hoosiers' leading scorer on Bob Knight's first national championship team. May also contributed to the gold medal U.S. Olympic team following his senior season. He averaged 14.2 points for the Chicago Bulls, making the NBA All-Rookie team. His NBA career spanned seven seasons.

KENT BENSON - 1975, 1976, 1977

Nicknamed Big Red for his recognizable red hair, Kent Benson was part of one of the most amazing periods of Indiana Basketball. After an average 1973-74 season, the Hoosiers took the world by storm in 1974-75, posting a perfect 29-0 regular season record. After teammate Scott May broke his arm, Benson did his part against Kentucky to try to keep the NCAA Tournament dream alive. Benson netted 33 points and grabbed 23 boards but IU fell 92-90 and Benson would have to look forward to his junior season. Benson was named All-Big Ten as a sophomore and his list of honors is endless. During the 1976 championship run, Benson racked up 25 points in the final game at the Final Four and received the Most Outstanding Player Award. The dream would come true as Indiana dominated Michigan for the tournament crown. After a final year at IU, Benson was the first player taken in the NBA draft. He played eight NBA seasons for Milwaukee. Detroit. Utah and Cleveland.

MIKE WOODSON - 1979, 1980

Mike Woodson became Indiana's 11th All-American in five seasons. He averaged 21.0 points during his junior season and helped lead Indiana to an NIT Championship. Woodson captained the USA's Pan American Games team to a gold medal during the summer prior to his senior year and was all set to have a perfect season with the Hoosiers. After five games and a No. 1 ranking, Woodson suffered a herniated disc in his back and had to undergo surgery. Upon losing Woodson, the Hoosiers went 7-5 in the Big Ten until he returned to spark Indiana back into action. IU finished the conference season with six straight victories and won the Big Ten title. Woodson was the MVP after playing in only six league games that season. Following his senior year, Woodson went on to an 11-year, 10,981-point NBA career with New York, New Jersey, Kansas City, Sacramento, the Los Angeles Clippers and Houston.

ISIAH THOMAS - 1981

The only thing disappointing about Isiah Thomas' IU career is the fact that he only played two years in a Hoosier uniform before turning pro. Before even playing a game at Indiana, Thomas played on Bob Knight's gold-medal Pan-American Games team in San Juan. Thomas helped lead the U.S. team to a 113-94 victory over Puerto Rico in the championship battle. At IU, Thomas started every game he played. He was a member and leader of two Indiana teams that won Big Ten Championships. During his second and final season at IU, Thomas led the Hoosiers in scoring and set a single-season school record for assists with 197. In the 1981 championship game, Thomas led all scorers with 23 points and was honored as the Outstanding Player. Several weeks later, he announced he was headed for the NBA. A No. 2 draft pick, Thomas was an instant success in the NBA. He received Rookie of the Year honors and was a starting All-Star from his first year on. He led the Detroit Pistons to two NBA Championships and his No. 11 was retired by the Pistons.

LANDON TURNER - 1982

The courage and strength shown by Landon Turner can be matched by few athletes around the country. Turner had an up and down basketball career during his first two years at Indiana. During his junior season in 1981, Knight gave Turner one last chance to prove he could contribute. Turner responded with a 4-of-5 performance against Northwestern, which boosted an already powerful line-up. Turner went on to reach double figures in nine of his last 11 games. The Hoosiers won their last five regular season games and earned their second straight Big Ten crown. Turner was on the rise heading into his senior season when disaster struck. On his way to Kings Island in Cincinnati, Ohio, Turner lost control of his vehicle and crashed in an accident that left him paralyzed from the chest down. Turner eventually graduated from Indiana in 1984 and went on to play wheelchair basketball. He was named an honorary All-American by the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and received the Most Courageous Athlete award in 1989.

TED KITCHEL - 1982, 1983

By his sophomore year, Ted Kitchel already had two Big Ten titles and had an NCAA Championship ring on his finger. He also set a conference record that still stands today when he hit all 18 of his free throw attempts in an Indiana victory over Illinois. Kitchel was a starter on an all-senior lineup that began the 1982-83 season 10-0 and gained a No. 1 ranking. On a weekend trip to Michigan late in the league season, Kitchel sank a three-pointer and fell to the floor. An early back problem had returned and his season was over. Despite the injury, Kitchel averaged 17.3 points and was one of the league's top scorers.

RANDY WITTMAN - 1983

Randy Wittman and Ted Kitchel experienced similar careers at Indiana. Five-year roommates, injury caused redshirt seasons for both individuals. Wittman gathered up his conference championships and NCAA title by his sophomore season. He and Kitchel were major contributors throughout their careers. After Kitchel suffered an injury late in the Big Ten 1982-83 season, Wittman and the Hoosiers were in a tie for the conference lead with three games remaining. Wittman took Indiana under his wing, helping the Hoosiers rout Purdue, Illinois and Ohio State for yet another Big Ten Championship. Wittman shot .543 on the season and averaged a team-leading 18.9 points. He was IU's third Big Ten MVP in four years. He went on to a productive nine-year NBA career and is currently an assistant coach with the Washinoton Wizards.

STEVE ALFORD - 1986, 1987

Steve Alford may have been born dribbling a basketball. Alford was not only a talented athlete, but he had the work ethic and determination to bring out the most of his abilities. An Indiana Mr. Basketball as a high school senior, Alford averaged 37 points a game and never scored less than 20 points in a game his final two seasons. As a freshman at Indiana, Alford led the nation in free throw shooting with a 91.3 percentage and led the Hoosiers with 15.5 points a game. After just missing a Final Four appearance that year, Alford and the Hoosiers had a slow season his sophomore year. He still managed to make history, draining 58 of 62 free throws during the Big Ten season. He also averaged a team-high 18.1 points. Alford continued to improve as a junior as he averaged 22.5 points and brought his team to a 21-8 record. The team was shocked in an NCAA Tournament opening round loss but would return for Alford's senior season with a vigor never seen before. In the first season of college basketball's three-point shot, Alford hit seven treys on two different occassions. He set an NCAA record with his seven baskets from beyond the arc in the championship game, a victory over Syracuse that would secure a fifth national title for the Hoosiers. Alford was the Big Ten MVP in 1987 and went on to a brief NBA career.

JAY EDWARDS - 1989

Jay Edwards made his debut appearance in a Hoosier jersey under the fan pressure to see a repeat NCAA Championship performance in 1988. Although Indiana did not obtain back-to-back titles, Edwards gave the Hoosier faithful a sight to see. The Big Ten Freshman of the Year had an NCAA freshman record .536 three-point percentage. He broke Alford's conference record of seven threes in a game. As a sophomore, Edwards led Indiana to a Big Ten title with last second shots to knock off Purdue and Michigan. With an average of 20 points a game and All-America achievement, Edwards gave up his final two years of eligibility to enter the draft and was a second-round pick of the Los Angeles Clippers.

CALBERT CHEANEY - 1991, 1992, 1993

Calbert Cheaney was Bob Knight's first-ever left-handed player and a good choice he was. Cheaney is the only Indiana freshman to start the season opener and score 20 points. Cheaney kept the Hoosiers a national power during all four of his years at Indiana. As a freshman he led the team in scoring with a 17.1 average. Over his final three seasons, Indiana spent all but two of 53 poll weeks in the Top 10 and 38 in the top five. The Hoosiers were 87-16 during those years. In his second season, Cheaney set a school-record with a .596 shooting percentage and an average of 21.6 points per game. Cheaney took on captainship of the team following that year. Indiana was unable to come up with a championship but outscored opponents by 17.6 points to lead the nation. Cheaney led the team to a Final Four appearance as a junior. On his way, he gained control of the all-time Big Ten men's scoring record with his career total of 2,613 points, a record that still stands. Cheaney was named the National Player of the Year (Wooden Award), a unanimous All-American, Big Ten MVP and was taken No. 6 in the NBA draft by Washington.

DAMON BAILEY - 1994

Damon Bailey could have never donned the Hoosier warmups and still been considered an Indiana legend. Bailey was featured in Sports Illustrated before ever playing a high school game. He led teams to three national AAU championships and Bedford North Lawrence High School to the state's Final Four three out of four years. As a senior, a national record crowd of 41,046 watched Bailey and his teammates top Concord for the state championship. He was named USA Today's High School Player of the Decade. At Indiana, Bailey played in 108 victories including an IU-record 11 NCAA tournament victories. Bailey's career as a Hoosier ended in the fill round of NCAA Tournament play his senior year. He averaged 19.6 points per game that season and finished No. 5 on IU's career points list with 1.741. He was All-Big Ten and a third team All-American, selection

ALAN HENDERSON - 1995

During Henderson's sophomore season, the Hoosiers were ranked No. 1 for almost the entire season, but their championship hopes took a turn for the worse when Henderson tore a ligament in his knee in February. Indiana managed a Big Ten Championship but Kansas was victorious in the regional final of the NCAA Tournament. Henderson came back strong as a junior, building up to a 41-point performance against Michigan State at the end of the season. Indiana reached the Sweet 16 for the fourth straight season but could not advance further. As a senior, Henderson scored 20 or more points on 24 occasions and recorded 50 double-doubles in his four years. He set IU's career rebounding record with 1,091, topping a record set 34 years before. Henderson was the Atlanta Hawks' first round draft pick, eventually becoming a starter and outstanding plaver for the Hawks.

BRIAN EVANS - 1996

Brian Evans just kept getting better when it came to Hoosier Basketball. He was a pleasant surprise to the Hoosiers his freshman year when he scored in double figures in eight games. He earned honorable mention All-Big Ten the following year, playing a key role in the Hoosiers' NCAA victories. He averaged 14.0 points per game and 9.0 rebounds during tournament action. As a junior, Evans was a third-team All-Big Ten selection and headed to his senior season with great potential. He led the Hoosiers to a 19-12 record, including an NCAA Tournament appearance. Evans averaged 21.2 points and 7.1 rebounds in his final season, earning him the Big Ten MVP and the conference Silver Basketball Award. He was named first team All-Big Ten and a third team All-American. His list of accomplishments culminated at Indiana with the IU Male Athlete of the Year and Balfour Award as he headed to the NBA's Orlando Magic.

A.J. GUYTON - 2000

A.J. Guyton started his career and ended it at Indiana in much the same way. As a freshman, Guyton became only the second first-year Hoosier to register 400 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists in a season. He was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Year and was a second team All-Big Ten selection. He moved up to first team All-Big Ten status as a sophomore, averaging 16.8 points per game and netting a career-high 79 three-pointers, the third best mark in school history. Guyton's talent was recognized by fans all over the country. He was a Playboy preseason All-American for two consecutive years, the first IU player to ever receive the honor two consecutive seasons. He was voted the Big Ten Player of the Year by the media in his final season as a Hoosier as well as a first-team All-Big Ten selection. He was a finalist for both the Wooden Award and the Naismith Award and helped lead Indiana to a 20-9 record and yet another NCAA Tournament appearance.

KIRK HASTON - 2001

Kirk Haston carried the Hoosiers in Mike Davis' first season as head coach, scoring 19 points and pulling down 8.7 rebounds per game. He led the Big Ten in conference scoring and ranked second in rebounding. He had one of the greatest seasons by a Hoosier and the NBA took notice, as Haston chose to forgo his senior season and enter the NBA Draft where he was a first-round selection (16th) of the Charlotte Hornets. Haston's game came to life in 2000-2001, as he discovered the three-point shot. No trey was bigger than the one he hit at the buzzer to beat No. 1 Michigan State, the first time Indiana had posted a victory over a top-ranked team in Assembly Hall. Haston concluded his career ranked 17th in school history with 1,406 points scored and finished ninth in career rebounds with 74B. He earned All-Big Ten first team honors as a junjor and second team honors as a sophomore.

JARED JEFFRIES - 2002

Despite playing just two years of college basketball, Jeffries closed his career as one of the most decorated players in Indiana history. He is 39th in the IU career scoring record book (1,008 points) and just the sixth sophomore in school history to crack the 1,000 career point plateau. A consensus second team All-American, finalist for the 2002 Naismith Award and United States Basketball Writers Association Player of the Year Award, Jeffries was the only player in the Big Ten to rank among the league's top 10 in six different statistical categories: scoring (eighth, 15.1), rebounding (second, 7.8), steals (eighth, 1.50), blocked shots (eighth, 1.28), offensive rebounds (2.53) and defensive rebounds (second, 5.06). Jeffries also ranks among the Hoosiers' all-time top 20 in blocked shots (88) and rebounds (20th, 471). He was the 11th overall pick of the NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards

ERIC GORDON - 2008

One of the most heralded recruits in Hoosier history, Eric Gordon became the first IU freshman ever to earn All-American honors after he set an IU and Big Ten record by scoring 669 points. Gordon was named first-team All-American by CBSSports.com, second team by the NABC, and third team by the Associated Press. He was the first freshman at IU to average more than 20 points per game and he led the Big Ten in scoring at 20.9. He was a first-team All-Big Ten choice and the Big Ten Freshman of the Year. He also made a team-high 231 free throws, which was the third-highest single-season total in IU lore. He also was a candidate for the Wooden Award and Naismith Award. He scored 33 points in the season opener against Chattanooga, marking the highest scoring debut of any player to wear the Cream and Crimson. He was an early entrant in the NBA Draft and was selected with the seventh pick in the first round by the Los Angeles Clippers.

D.J. WHITE - 2008

D.J. White was one of the most beloved players to wear the Indiana uniform. After battling injuries early in his career, and multiple coaching changes, White was rewarded as senior by being named second-team All-American by CBSSports.com, the Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, the USBWA and the NABC. He finished 16th in his career in scoring (1447) and ninth in IU history in rebounds (748). He was second in the Big Ten in scoring (17.4), first in rebounds (10.3) and field goal percentage (60.5) and fourth in blocked shots (1.64). His 56.2 career field goal percentage mark ranks second all-time in IU history. He was the first player since Alan Henderson in 1994 to average a double-double for a season. His best game of the year was a 21-point, 22-rebound effort at Michigan. He was named Big Ten Player of the Year and was a candidate for the Wooden Award and Naismith Award. He could have applied for a medical hardship to regain a year of eligibility, but elected to enter the NBA Draft where he was drafted in the first round by the Detroit Pistons (29th overall) and later traded to the Seattle Supersonics who then became the Oklahoma City Thunder.

DON SCHLUNDT - 1953

Don Schlundt became Indiana's first Big Ten Most Valuable Player after leading the 1953 Hoosiers to a 23-3 overall mark and their first conference title under the direction of Branch McCracken with a 17-1 record. Schlundt was also the first sophomore in conference history to win the award. Known as "Mr. Inside," the 6-10 sophomore set conference records in points scored (459), free throws in a game (17) and free throws in a season (175). During the NCAA Tournament march, Schlundt's 49 free throws in four games set a new NCAA record. His season-high 41 points against Notre Dame in the Chicago Regional NCAA Tournament erased George Mikan's Chicago Stadium record. Chosen for the All-NCAA Tournament team and the All-Regional Tournament team in Chicago, Schlundt was also selected as the Regional MVP. A unanimous choice of all All-Big Ten teams, he won a place on All-American teams of the Helms Foundation, International News Service and ranked within the first 10 on Colliers', AP and UPI All-Americans.

ARCHIE DEES - 1957

During the 1956-57 season, junior Archie Dees led the Hoosiers to their third Big Ten crown in five years. During that 14-8 season (10-4 Big Ten), Dees was selected as the Big Ten MVP after receiving almost as many votes as all other candidates combined. Dees earned the award after putting up 356 points (25.4 avg.) and running away with the conference scoring title. He ranked as the country's most proficient free throw shooter for his size, sinking 176 of 209 attempts for an .842 percentage, 10th best in the nation. His 106 of 125 in the Big Ten for an .848 percentage was top in the league. He set IU records for a 22-game season in field goals (187), field goal attempts (440) and climbed to third place in career points (933 in two years) behind Don Schlundt (2,192) and Bob Leonard (1,098). His 14.4 rebounds per contest, along with his 25.0 points, made Dees one of the most feared competitors in the nation.

SCOTT MAY - 1975

In 1975, Sandusky, Ohio, native Scott May was a unanimous All-Big Ten selection and voted MVP in the conference. May scored in double figures in every game until suffering a broken arm at Purdue in Indiana's 26th game of the season. He totaled a season-best 29 points against Kansas after scoring Indiana's first nine overtime points, en route to a 74-70 victory. He tallied 20-plus points on 12 different occasions on a team that finished with a 31-1 record, including an 18-0 conference mark. He was the second-highest rebounder on the team with 199. May was also selected to the All-America team by the AP, UPI and Helms Foundation. He was a second team All-America selection by the NBA Coaches, Basketball Weekly and the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

SCOTT MAY - 1976

Scott May became Indiana's second two-time Big Ten MVP in 1976 after a remarkable senior season. May's 752 points that season set a school record and brought his career total to 1,593. His career point total ranks 11th in school history and is the best by any three-year letterwinner. His 308 field goals that season still holds as the most by anyone in IU history, while his 584 field goal attempts is second most. May also set a school record with nine steals against Michigan. His 14 field goals against St. John's in the Mideast First Round ties two other Hoosiers for most field goals in an NCAA Tournament game. He led the 32-0 (18-0 Big Ten) Hoosier roster in scoring and free throw percentage (.782). Much like his junior season, May earned first team All-Big Ten and All-America honors for his outstanding efforts. He was also named the 1976 NCAA Player of the Year.

KENT BENSON - 1977

In 1977, Kent Benson returned for his senior season after winning the 1976 NCAA Championship and being named the NCAA Finals' MVP. In his final year, the 6-11 center grabbed 241 rebounds, bringing his career total to 1,031, a mark that currently ranks third in school history and 10th in Big Ten history. He also recorded 456 points for a total of 1,740 career points, eighth-best in school history. He led a 16-11 (11-7 Big Ten) Hoosier squad in rebounds and blocks (28). In addition to being selected as the Big Ten's 1977 MVP, Benson earned All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors for the third consecutive season. He was also selected to the academic All-America and academic All-Big Ten teams for the second straight season.

MIKE WOODSON - 1980

Mike Woodson's 1980 Big Ten MVP season ranks as a great comeback story. He had back surgery in late December and returned to action just seven weeks later. His heroic return sparked the Hoosiers to emerge from the middle of a five-team race in the conference to the clear-cut champion after a six-game charge. He closed his IU career with 2,061 points, fifth-best in IU history. At year's end, Woodson earned All-America status for the second consecutive year

RAY TOLBERT - 1981

Ray Tolbert finished 1981 as the Big Ten's shooting leader with a percentage of .626. While leading the Hoosiers to their fourth National Championship in school history, Tolbert set the pace in rebounding (224), field goal percentage (.588) and blocks (35). His four blocks against Maryland in the 1981 Mideast Second Round set a school record that has since been matched by Dean Garrett and Alan Henderson. In the National Championship game against North Carolina, he grabbed a game-high 11 rebounds, in a 63-50 IU victory. Tolbert's 428 points during his senior year placed him 18th on the all-time scoring list at IU with 1,427 points. He played in 127 games as a Hoosier, starting 123.

RANDY WITTMAN - 1983

In 1983, Indiana fifth-year senior Randy Wittman was one of the most experienced players in the Big Ten Conference. Playing like the profound leader that he was, Wittman scored 589 points for the 24-6 Hoosiers, averaging 18.9 points. In addition to leading the team in scoring, he also led in field goal percentage (,543). He ended his career with 1,549 points in 133 games and is now in 13th place on the IU career scoring list. His 133 career games played ranks No. 1 in school history, nudging the 132 games played by Damon Bailey, Calbert Cheaney and Greg Graham. He was a first-time All-American, an academic All-American for the second straight year, and, in April 1983, was one of 10 recipients of an NCAA postgraduate scholarship.

STEVE ALFORD - 1987

In all four of his years at Indiana, Steve Alford led the Indiana Hoosiers in scoring. He is the second Hoosier to accomplish that feat as Don Schlundt did it from 1952-1955. During his senior season, he had his most prolific effort, tallying 749 points, including a school-record 107 three-point field goals. The New Castle, Ind., native finished his career as Indiana's career scoring leader with 2,438 points and now ranks second all-time. His career point total also ranks as the fifth-best in conference history. Behind the 1987 Big Ten MVP, the Hoosiers finished the season with a record of 30-4 (15-3) and claimed the school's most recent National Championship by defeating Syracuse 74-73 in the NCAA Championship game. In his last game as a Hoosier, Alford went 8-15 from the field, including a remarkable 7-10 from three-point range, to lead all scorers with 23 points. For the second consecutive season, the 6-2 guard received both All-America and first-team All-Bio Ten honors.

CALBERT CHEANEY - 1993

Calbert Cheaney was a leader in every facet of the game for the Indiana Hoosiers during the 1992-93 season. En route to winning the 1993 Big Ten MVP award, Cheaney averaged 22.4 points per contest in 35 appearances. His school-record 785 points in one season puts him high a top the leaderboard for career points in the Big Ten (2,613). He led the 31-4 Hoosiers to (17-1) their 22nd consecutive NCAA appearance after winning the 1993 Big Ten title. Cheaney completed a clean sweep of College Basketball Player of the Year Awards as he won 12 such awards. In 1993, Cheaney became one of only three Hoosiers to earn All-America honors three times. He was also named Preseason NITT MVP

BRIAN EVANS - 1996

Not only did Brian Evans lead the Hoosiers in scoring, rebounding and steals during the 1995-96 season, he led them to a 19-12 mark overall, including a 12-6 record in the conference. Evans became the first Indiana player to win the Big Ten scoring title under the tutelage of Bob Knight and the first Hoosier since George McGinnis won the award in 1971. Hailing from Terre Haute, Ind., the 6-8 forward posted career highs in nearly every statistical category in 1996. Evans finished his career in 10th place on IU's career scoring chart with 1,701 points. He was an All-America and first-team All-Big Ten selection in 1996.

A.J. GUYTON - 2000

A.J. Guyton was named Big Ten MVP in 2000. In the 100th season of Indiana basketball, Guyton led the Hoosiers to a 20-9 season, including a 10-6 conference mark. The 6-1 shooting guard from Peoria, Ill., led the Big Ten in both conference and non-conference scoring. His .419 overall three-point shooting percentage was second best in the conference and he held the fifth-best free throw percentage in conference games with an accuracy of .825. Against North Carolina, Guyton put up seven three-pointers and tied a school record for most threes in one game. His 172 trifectas in 2000 ranks seventh-best at Indiana. Guyton finished his Indiana career as the fourth-highest scorer in school history with 2,100 points. Aside from being named the Big Ten MVP, Guyton was also an All-America and first team All-Big Ten honoree in 2000.

JARED JEFFRIES - 2002

Jared Jeffries became the first Indiana player since Brian Evans (1996) to be named Big Ten MVP by both the coaches and the media. The 6-10 sophomore enjoyed a stellar 2001-02 campaign, ranking among the league's top 10 in scoring (eighth, 15.0), rebounding (second, 7.6), steals (eighth, 1.50), blocks (eighth, 1.28), offensive rebounds (fourth, 2.53) and defensive rebounds (second, 5.06). He also became the 36th member of the Hoosiers' 1,000 career point club. A second-team All-American selection and finalist for the Naismith and Wooden Awards, Jeffries was the 11th overall pick of the 2002 NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards.

D.J. WHITE - 2008

D.J. White was named Big Ten MVP after he was second in the Big Ten in scoring (17.4), first in rebounds (10.3) and field goal percentage (56.2) and fourth in blocked shots (1.64). He was named second-team All-America by CMSSports.com, the Sporting News, Sports Illustrated, the USBWA and the NABC. He finished 16th in career scoring (1,447) and ninth in IU history in rebounds (748). He was the first player since Alan Henderson in 1994 to average a double-double for a season. His best game of the year was a 21-point, 22-rebound effort at Michigan. He was named Big Ten Player of the Year and was a candidate for the Wooden Award and Naismith Award. He could have applied for a medical hardship to regain a year of eligibility, but elected to enter the NBA Draft where he was drafted in the first round by the Detroit Pistons (29th overall) and later traded to the Seattle Supersonics who then became the Oklahoma City Thunder.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

J.H. HORNE - 1901

1-4 (.250), 0-2 (.000)

J.H. Horne was the first coach in Indiana history and coached the Hoosiers in 1901. He led the squad to a 1-4 overall record with an 0-2 record in the Big Ten Conference.

PHELPS DARBY - 1902

4-4 (.500), 0-2 (.000)

Phelps Darby coached the Hoosiers in 1902. Darby, who also served as the center on the team, led the team to a .500 record (4-4) and a 0-2 record in the Big Ten Conference.

WILLIS COVAL - 1903-04

13-8 (.619), 0-4 (.000)

Not only serving as head coach but also as a reserve guard was highlytouted football player Willis Coval. Coval led the Hoosiers to their first pair of winning seasons. The team went 8-4 in 1903 and 5-4 in 1904 under his guidance. The Big Ten Conference slump continued for Indiana after Coval's teams went a combined 0-4 in conference play.

ZORA G. CLEVENGER - 1905-06

12-21 (.364), 3-3 (.500)

The Hoosiers' fourth coach was Indiana football All-American Zora G. Clevenger who served the squad in 1905 and 1906. Clevenger led the Hoosiers to a 12-21 record, and guided the team to its first Big Fon Conference victory and .500 conference season at 3-3. Clevenger later served as the athletic director at Indiana University and is a 1982 inductee into the IU Athletic Hall of Fame.

JAMES SHELDON - 1907

9-5 (.643)

James Sheldon spent one season as the head coach of the Hoosiers and led them to a 9-5 record.

ED COOK - 1908

9-6 (.600), 2-4 (.333)

Ed Cook led the Hoosiers in 1908. Under his guidance, the Hoosiers finished 9-6 overall and 2-4 in the Big Ten Conference.

ROBERT HARRIS - 1909

5-9 (.357), 2-6 (.250)

Robert Harris coached the Hoosiers in 1909 and led them to a 5-9 season. The Big Ten Conference slump took hold again as for the second consecutive year Indiana finished under .500, going 2-6.

JOHN GEORGEN - 1910

5-8 (.385), 3-7 (.300)

John Georgen coached the Hoosiers in 1910 and led them to a 5-8 season including a 3-7 season in the Big Ten Conference.

OSCAR RACKLE - 1911

11-5 (.688), 5-5 (.500)

Oscar Rackle led the Hoosiers to its first .500 season in the Big Ten Conference since 1906 in 1911. Rackle coached the Hoosiers to an 11-5 overall record and finished the season 5-5 in the Big Ten.

JAMES KASE - 1912

6-11 (.353), 1-9 (.100)

James Kase coached the Hoosiers in 1912. He led Indiana to a 6-11 season and a 1-9 Big Ten Conference record.

ARTHUR POWELL - 1913

5-11 (.312), 0-10 (.000)

Arthur Powell led Indiana to an overall record of 5-11 and for the first time in its history IU finished the Big Ten regular season winless, going 0-10.

ARTHUR BERNDT - 1914-15

6-21 (.222), 2-20 (.091)

Indiana Hall of Famer Arthur Berndt coached the Hoosiers in 1914 and 1915. He finished his two-year tenure with a mark of 6-21.

ALLAN WILLISFORD - 1916

6-7 (.462), 3-5 (.375)

Allan Willisford led the Hoosiers in 1916 and finished the year with a 6-7 overall record. He also coached Indiana to a 3-5 Big Ten Conference record.

G.S. LOWMAN - 1917

13-6 (.684), 3-5 (.375)

G.S. Lowman coached Indiana in 1917 leading the team to a 13-6 overall record. In the Big Ten Conference, Lowman finished his coaching career with a 3-5 record

DANA M. EVANS - 1918-19

20-11 (.645), 7-9 (.438)

Dana M. Evans led the Hoosiers in 1918 and 1919. He coached them to a 20-11 overall record and a Big Ten mark of 7-9.

EWALD O. STIEHM - 1920

13-8 (.619), 6-4 (.600)

Ewald O. Stiehm coached Indiana in 1920. He led them to a 13-8 overall record including a Big Ten Conference record of 6-4.

GEORGE W. LEWIS - 1921-22

25-16 (.610), 9-12 (.429)

George W. Lewis spent two seasons with the Hoosiers, 1921 and 1922. He led the squad to a 25-16 overall record and a 9-12 mark in the Big Ten Conference.

LESLIE MANN - 1923-24

19-13 (.594), 12-12 (.500)

Leslie Mann coached the Hoosiers for two seasons in 1923 and 1924. The squad, under Mann's guidance, finished 19-13 in those two years with a .500 Big Ten Conference record of 12-12.

EVERETT DEAN - 1925-38

162-93 (.635), 96-72 (.571)

From being the first All-American basketball player at Indiana University to receiving the Big Ten medal for academic and athletic excellence, Everett Dean was the choice to lead the Hoosiers through the Roaring 20s. Dean led the Hoosiers to their first-ever Big Ten Conference co-championship which they clinched in a 15-point victory over Wisconsin to end the 1926 season. He led the squad to two more Big Ten titles and had an impressive overall career record of 162-93 with a Big Ten mark of 96-72 which was by far the most successful coaching career in Indiana basketball history at the time. Dean's era officially kicked off the tradition of Hoosier basketball at Indiana University that continues today. Dean was inducted into the Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

BRANCH MCCRACKEN - 1939-43, 1947-65

364-174 (.677), 210-116 (.644)

While Dean's era dug the foundation for college basketball at Indiana, Branch McCracken's two stints as Indiana University Head Basketball Coach were the concrete needed to solidify that foundation. McCracken spent 24 years at the helm of the "Hurryin' Hoosiers" and brought two National Championships, four Big Ten Championships and IU's first four 20-win seasons to Bloomington. The first national title came in 1940 when the Hoosiers finished 20-3 overall and 9-3 in the Big Ten. NCAA Championship number two came in the 1952-53 season when the squad racked up a then-school-record 23 wins to only three losses, an unprecedented 17-1 Big Ten record and IU's first outright Big Ten Championship. McCracken led the squad to a 364-174 overall record and a 210-116 Big Ten record. His 450 career wins places him 76th on the NCAA's all-time victories list and 86th on the all-time winningest coaches list. McCracken served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army in World War II from 1944-46. The legendary coach was elected to the Indiana University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1982.

HARRY C. GOOD - 1944-46

35-29 (.547), 14-22 (.389)

Harry C. Good coached the Hoosiers for three seasons from 1944-1946 while Branch McCracken served as a lieutenant in the U.S. Army. He led Indiana to a 35-29 overall mark and a Big Ten Conference mark of 14-22.

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

LOU WATSON - 1966-71

62-60 (.508), 31-39 (.443)

Lou Watson spent six seasons with the Hoosiers. From 1966-1971 he coached the Hoosiers to a 62-60 overall record and a 31-39 Big Ten Conference mark. Watson, in 1970, coached an IU legend who only spent one season as a Hoosier. George McGinnis led the Big Ten in scoring (29.9 ppg) and rebounding (14.5 rpg). His 29.9 points per game average is still the highest single-season average in the history of Indiana basketball.

JERRY OLIVER - 1970

7-17 (.292), 3-11 (.214)

Jerry Oliver spent one season as the acting head coach of Indiana basketball. He was named acting head coach after head coach Lou Watson had surgery to remove cancer from his back. Oliver led the Hoosiers to a 7-17 overall mark including a 3-11 record in the Big Ten Conference.

BOB KNIGHT - 1972-2000

662-239 (.737), 354-150 (.704)

From the plaid jacket to the famed red sweater the name Bob Knight became synonymous with Indiana University basketball and in his 29 seasons no one could deny him that distinction. "The General" led the Hoosiers to three national championships, 11 Big Ten championships and one National Invitation Tournament title. The greatest accomplishment in the Bob Knight era was the 1975-76 National Championship run where the Hoosiers began the year as the Associated Press' preseason number one team and carried that ranking all the way through the season to Knight's first and the school's third NCAA Championship. That squad was also the last team to finish the season perfect with a 32-0 overall record and an 18-0 Big Ten mark. Knight's second title came during the 1980-81 season when Isiah Thomas led the squad to the NCAA title over the North Carolina Tar Heels. The squad's final championship of the Knight era came in the 1986-87 season when Keith Smart hit the game-winning shot to defeat Syracuse in the national title game. Knight's career saw numerous achievements by both the coach himself and his players. He was awarded with National Coach-of-the-Year honors on four occasions in 1975, 76, 87 and 1989. He ranks sixth on the all-time coaches list for victories and is the 30th winningest coach of all-time. Under Knight's leadership, Calbert Cheaney became the all-time leading scorer in Big Ten history. He also coached nine Big Ten MVPs and had a total of 27 All-Americans play in Assembly Hall. Knight had an overall Indiana record of 662-239 and a Big Ten Conference mark of 354-150. He was inducted into the IU Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009.

MIKE DAVIS - 2000-06

115-79 (.592), 55-41 (.573)

Mike Davis served as Indiana head coach from 2000-06, and he compiled a 115-79 overall record and a 55-41 Big Ten Conference ledger. Davis was the first coach in IU history to open his tenure with three straight 20-plus win seasons and three straight NCAA Tournament appearances. Davis directed the Hoosiers to a share of the 2002 Big Ten championship and an appearance in the 2002 national championship game. Davis led IU to postseason appearances five of his six years as head coach (four NCAA and one NIT), and the Hoosiers defeated 22 nationally-ranked opponents in his tenure.

KELVIN SAMPSON - 2006-08

43-15 (.741), 20-9 (.690)

Two-time National Coach of the Year Kelvin Sampson was named the 26th head coach in Indiana University history on March 29, 2006. In his first year with the Cream and Crimson, Sampson's squad finished 21-11 and tied a school record by going 15-0 at Assembly Hall. The Hoosiers earned their 34th NCAA Tournament bid, advanced to the second round of the West Regional after defeating Gonzaga, 70-57, in the first round, and were ranked as high as 19th in the country during the regular season. During his second year, the Hoosiers were nationally ranked for the majority of the year and were ranked as high as eighth in the country. However, prior to the start of the season, IU announced that a series of recruiting sanctions and corrective actions were being imposed on Sampson and his staff. When the NCAA announced that possible major violations had occured during his tenure, Sampson resigned after leading IU to a 22-4 record.

DAN DAKICH - Feb. 2008-Mar. 2008

3-4. (.429), 2-2 (.500)

Longtime assistant and former player Dan Dakich served as the interim coach for the Hoosiers following the resignation of Kelvin Sampson. He guided IU to a win at Northwestern and triumphs at home against Ohio State and Minnesota. He also took the Hoosiers to their 35th NCAA Tournament appearance.

TOM CREAN - 2008-Present

84-82. (.506), 33-57 (.366)

Tom Crean was named head coach on April 2, 2008. He suited up the least experienced team in Big Ten history during his first season and took his team to the EA Sports Maui Invitational and had the Hoosiers play the first-ever game in Lucas Oil Stadium against Gonzaga. His first recuiting class in 2009 was ranked tops in the Big Ten and among the best ten in the country. In year two, the Hoosiers defeated Pitt at Madison Square Garden and Crean picked up his first conference road win at Penn State. The third year saw the Hoosiers defeat #20 Illinois and #18 Minnesota in Assembly Hall to give Crean his first two victories over ranked opponents at Indiana. He led IU to a 27-9 mark and a berth in the Sweet Sixteen in year four and defeated the #1. #2 and #5 squads in the country while posting a 15 1/2 game turnaround the largest among major college programs. Last year, the Hoosiers finished 29-7 and won their first outright Big Ten Conference championship in 20 years when they won at Michigan, 72-71 on the final day of the regular season. IU made its second straight Sweet Sixteen appearance and spent 11 weeks as the No.1 team in the country. In addition, he saw Victor Oladipo and Cody Zeller earn first-team All-American honors.

Joby Wright and Dan Dakich both played for the Hoosiers and later served as assistant coaches and Dakich was interim head coach in 2008.

Bennie Seltzer, now the head coach at Samford, was an assistant at Indiana for four seasons under Tom Crean.

BRANCH MCCRACKEN

Branch McCracken Court at Assembly Hall was dedicated on Dec. 18, 1971. The Hoosiers have posted a 468-94 record on their home floor, and this plaque (below, left) is located on the northeast side of the court.

In 1940 the Hoosiers, under the direction of head coach Branch McCracken, won the first of IU's five national titles.

BOB KNIGHT

- Bob Knight talks to his son, Pat, who played for his dad from 1991-95.
- Bob Knight was born in Massillon, Ohio, and played basketball and football at Orrville High School. He went on to attend Ohio State University, where he was a member of the 1960 national championship team.
- Knight then went on to coach the JV basketball team at Cuyahoga Falls (Ohio) High School for one season before enlisting in the U.S. Army. Then in 1965 he was named the head coach of the Army men's basketball program, where he would go on to post a record of 102-50 in six seasons.
- In 1971, Knight was named the head coach at Indiana University and went on to win three national championships in his 29 years leading the Hoosiers. His overall record at Indiana was 662-239.
- Then in 2001, he was hired as the head coach at Texas Tech where he would spend the next sixplus seasons and compiled a 138-82 record and three trips to the NCAA Tournament.

BOB KNIGHT

On November 6, 2009, legendary IU coach Bob Knight, the winningest NCAA coach in collegiate men's basketball, was among the 2009 Indiana University Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame inductee class. Knight won three national championships, was Big Ten Coach of the Year seven times and National Coach of the Year twice.

Representing Coach Knight that evening was 2008 IU Hall of Famer and joined former Hoosier basketball standout Steve Downing as one of the seven honorees. The class was officially inducted at the annual Hall of Fame dinner on November 6, and was recognized at halftime of the football game against Wisconsin at Memorial Stadium, the following day.

The Hall of Fame was established in 1982 by the Indiana University Varsity Club National Board of Directors, in cooperation with Indiana University, its Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, the I Association, and the Indiana University Alumni Association. Its purpose is to recognize and honor individuals who have made exceptional contributions to the achievements and prestige of Indiana University in the field of athletics and who have demonstrated the values imparted by intercollegiate athletics. Each year, a subcommittee of the Indiana University Varsity Club National Board of Directors selects inductees for the Hall of Fame. With the 2010 class included, the current number of inductees to the IU Hall of Fame is 170.

COACH KNIGHT'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS AT INDIANA

HISTORY MADE AT 2013 NBA DRAFT

BROOKLYN, N.Y. (JUNE 27, 2013) - History was made at the 2013 NBA Draft at the Barclay's Center in Brooklyn, N.Y., when Indiana had two players selected within the first four picks for the first time in program history. Victor Oladipo was drafted 2nd overall by the Orlando Magic and while Cody Zeller was selected 4th overall by the Charlotte Bobcats.

Thursday also signals the fifth time IU has had at least two players taken in the first round of the Draft (2013, 2008, 1993, 1981, 1976). Oladipo is the highest drafted player from Indiana since Isiah Thomas was chosen second in the 1981 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons.

They become the first IU teammates to be picked in the first round of the same draft since 2008, when Eric Gordon (7th) and D.J. White (29th) were both taken in the first round. They are the first IU teammates to be taken in the first 15 picks since 1976, when Scott May (2nd) and Quinn Buckner (7th) accomplished the feat.

Oladipo is the 2nd IU player to be drafted by the Orlando Magic (Brian Evans - 27th, 1996) and Zeller becomes the first IU player selected by the Charlotte Bobcats franchise.

The two selections so far gives Indiana a Big Ten-best 73 NBA Draft selections all-time.

Oladipo closed his career at Indiana with a career average of 10.7 points, 5.2 rebounds, 1.5 steals and 1.7 assists in 104 career games. He ranks third at Indiana in career steals (1611) and owns 1.117 career points, ranking 37th all-time at IU. During the 2012-13 campaign, he averaged 13.6 points, 6.3 rebounds, 2.2 steals and 2.1 assists per game while helping lead the Hoosiers to their second consecutive NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 1994 and the Hoosiers' first outright Big Ten regular season championship since 1993. This season, Oladipo set Indiana's single-season record in steals (78) and led the Big Ten in field goal percentage (59.9) and steals (2.2).

"This means everything to me," Oladipo said. "Having my family here. Coach Crean, he's done so much for me and I wouldn't be in this position without him. I definitely wouldn't be here going all the way back to my high school coach and my AAU coaches. It's just an amazing atmosphere and without them I definitely wouldn't be here. I just thank God and I give God the glory."

The NABC National Co-Defensive Player of the Year and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, Oladipo was named the Sporting News National Player of the Year, while also earning First Team All-America honors from Sporting News, the NABC and the Associated Press. The Upper Marlboro, Md., native was also selected to the Wooden All-America team. At the conclusion of the regular season, Oladipo was named a First Team All-Big Ten honoree. A finalist for the Wooden Award and the Oscar Robertson Trophy, he also earned his first career Academic All-Big Ten accolade in March.

Zeller, a native of Washington, Ind., led the Hoosiers during his sophomore campaign with 16.5 points, 8.1 rebounds and 1.3 blocks per game. He ranked among the top-five in the Big Ten in scoring, rebounds and field goal percentage (56.2) in the 2012-13 season. In 72 career games at Indiana, Zeller averaged 16.1 points, 7.3 rebounds, 1.3 assists, 1.2 blocks and 1.2 steals per game. He helped lead the Hoosiers to back-to-back NCAA Sweet Sixteen's for the first time since 1994 and the program's first outright Big Ten regular season championship since 1993. During his tenure at IU, the Hoosiers have led all major college conference teams in field goal percentage (48.7), 3-point field goal percentage (41.6), free throws made (1327) and free throws attempted (1762). He owns 1,157 career points, ranking 36th all-time at Indiana and holds IU's record for career field goal percentage at 59.1.

"It says a lot," Zeller said after his selection. "It says a lot about our coaching staff and it says a lot about the hard work we've put in. I think Indiana is going to be good for a long time."

Zeller, the 2012 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and a consensus Freshman All-American, earned several preseason national player of the year honors his sophomore season. At the conclusion of the 2012-13 season, he was named a Basketball Times and Sports Illustrated First Team All-American and a Capital One First Team Academic All-American. He earned a spot on the John R. Wooden. All-America Team, while also being a named a Second Team All-American hy the Associated Press, USBWA and the NABC. He earned third team honors from Sporting News and was a First Team All-Big Ten and All-Big Ten Tournament selection. Zeller also earned All-Tournament Team honors from the Legends Classic, a tournament the Hoosiers won in November. He also earned Academic All-Big Ten honors.

GOING GLOBAL

Indiana University's Basketball program has been well represented in the U.S. National team's history and in international competition.

Among the most memorable IU connections with international play was the Games of the XXIII Olympiad in Los Angeles during the summer of 1984. Three Hoosiers participated in the games, IU coach Bob Knight as the U.S. head coach, Steve Alford as one of the 12 U.S. players and Uwe Blab on the West German squad.

A large banner of the Olympic rings and U.S.A. stitched into the rings hangs in Assembly Hall as a remembrance of the role Hoosier fans, players and coaches had in the U.S.A. gold medal effort.

Indiana hosted the team selection in April 1984 when 74 candidates worked out daily in the IIJ Fieldhouse. Over 34,000 turned out over two nights to watch the final trials games. A dinner with over 3,000 attending in the RCA Dome at Indianapolis saluted the U.S. team and helped raise over $131,000 for the U.S. Olympic Committee. More Olympic contributions came when 17,100 watched a June game in Assembly Hall between the U.S. team and a group of former Indiana players.

A highlight of the summer came in July when the RCA Dome had quite a debut for its first sporting event. Exceeding all expectations, 67,596 fans turned out for two exhibition games featuring the U.S. men's and women's Olympic Basketball teams.

The U.S. squad turned aside eight opponents en route to the gold medal with some of the decisions very one-sided thanks to contributions from all 12 U.S. players. Alford and Blab's respective teams met during pool play, and the U.S. won, 78-67. It was the closest margin of victory for the U.S. team.

HOOSIER TIMELINE

FEB. 8, 1901

Indiana University competes in its firstever basketball game. The Hoosiers travel to Irvington and lose to Butler, 20-17.

MARCH 8, 1901

Indiana won its first-ever basketball game in the school's fourth outing of the season. IU defeated visiting Wabash, 26-17.

WINTER 1901

Over 50 people show up for open tryouts to become a member of IU's second-ever basketball team. The Hoosiers post a .500 record in only their second season of competition.

MARCH 12. 1904

A crowd of 550 watches as Purdue defeats IU, 22-21, to claim the State Championship in West Lafayette.

FEB. 10, 1906

A crowd of over 1,000 watches as host Purdue nips IU, 27-25.

FEB. 27, 1906

New Albany YMCA 18, IU 17. From the Indiana Daily Student: "...Everybody unites in agreeing that the work of the official who reigned with a tyrannical hand was the vilest and most unfair ever perpetrated. On three different occasions fouls were called on Woody just as he had thrown the ball in the basket for a field goal, and no possible motive for the umpires verdicts could be found except his desire to give the visitors the short end of it. Despite the handicap, the Crimson athletes showed wonderful tenacity and were in the van at many stages."

SPRING, 1921

Everett Dean becomes Indiana's first basketball All-American and is a first team All-Western Conference pick.

NOV. 21, 1922

Head coach George Levis announces he will resign his position effective Dec. 1 to accept a position at Showers' Furniture Factory.

DEC. 6, 1922

Les Mann, who served as coach of the freshman team, is named head basketball coach and, upon the announcement, he "formally declared a secret practice for this afternoon."

JAN. 13, 1923

Indiana defeats Purdue 31-26 to snap an eight-game losing streak to the Boilers, coached by Ward "Piggy" Lambert. The team was greeted by an overflowing crowd at the train station when it arrived in Bloomington at 3:45 a.m.

OCT. 15, 1924

Everett Dean, a 1921 IU graduate, returns to Bloomington as head coach of the Indiana basketball team.

DEC. 18, 1924

Indiana defeats Kentucky in Lexington, 20-18. It marked the first time the two schools played to start a long-time rivalry.

FEB. 29, 1926

Junior utility man Bob Entire sinks his 129th consecutive free throw en route to making 258 of 262.

MARCH 9, 1926

Indiana defeats Wisconsin, 35-20, to earn a share of the Western Conference Championship. It was the Hoosiers' first-ever conference championship in basketball, which Everett Dean won in only his second season as coach.

MARCH 2, 1936

Before a crowd of over 7,000, Indiana defeats Ohio State in its last game of the season to clinch a share of the Western Conference Championship.

SPRING, 1938

Everett Dean resigns to become head coach at Stanford University and Ernie Andres is named All-American.

SUMMER, 1938

Branch McCracken, a 1930 IU graduate, returns to Bloomington and is named men's basketball coach. In his inaugural season, the Hoosiers post a 17-3 record, the second-most wins ever in a single season.

MARCH 6, 1940

Although Indiana finishes second to Purdue in the Western Conference standings, a committee made up of Tony Hinkle (Butler), Bill Chandler (Marquette), George Keogan (Notre Dame) and K. L. Wilson (Northwestern) extend an invitation to IU to be the Midwestern representative in the NCAA Tournament.

MARCH 30, 1940

Indiana defeats Kansas, 60-42, for the first-ever NCAA Championship in the program's history. IU finishes the season 20-3.

SPRING, 1943

Lt. Branch McCracken takes a leave of absence to serve in World War II and is replaced by Harry C. Good, who brings a 190-52 record from Indiana Central College where he coached for the past 15 years. Good is coach for three years and has seasons of 7-15, 10-11 and 18-3 before McCracken returns for the 1947 season.

DEC. 2, 1948

An all-time record crowd of 7,631 are on hand for the return of "Big Mac," Branch McCracken, and watch the "Merry Macs" defeat Wabash, 69-46.

FALL, 1948

Indiana's Bill Garrett makes the final cut and is the first black athlete to play basketball at Indiana.

JAN. 20, 1953

The Hoosiers finished the season ranked fifth in the country and first in the Big Ten in overall attendance, averaging a new IU record 17,412 fans in 19 home games. It also marked just the second time since 1985 that IU had ranked among the top five programs in the country in attendance and the first since 2002. This was also the first time that IU had led the Big Ten, which led conferences in the nation in attendance (13,114), since that same season.

OLD ASSEMBLY HALL

Indiana University Basketball has in its 100-year existence come full circle. Today, the 17,000-plus capacity Assembly Hall is a mecca for sporting arenas, just as old Assembly Hall was in its day.

The original Assembly Hall was not a sporting arena, it was a small one-story structure with a wooden frame. The building, located near the Indiana Memorial Union, was built in 1895 and had a price tag of $12,000. When full the building could seat 600 people for a basketball game. It also was the practice site for the team and the gymnasium for physical education classes

IU's first-ever game was on February 8, 1901 against Butler. The game was described by the Indianapolis News as a "fast" and "hard-fought" game which had Butler on top 20-17. The first game at Assembly Hall came 20 days later against Butler. In another tight game, Butler pulled it out 24-20 and left IU 0-2.

Opponents were rare and basketball was still enduring growing pains, but the 1901 total of two games doubled in 1902 and five games were played in 1903. It was a time when basketball was just taking hold, but when it did, the growth was accompanied by the need for a new building.

The final game at the original Assembly Hall was against Rose Poly on January 5, 1917 and it was the fifth-straight victory for IU and it came in dominating fashion, 35-9.

The building attracted former Presidents William Howard Taft and Teddy Roosevelt and also presidential candidate William Jennings Bryan.

The doors to Assembly Hall, which boasted an overall record of 61-43, officially closed in 1938 when it was demolished, but the tradition carried on and only grew stronger.

MEN'S GYMNASIUM

What is now an upstairs recreational gymnasium in the School of Health, Physical Education and Recreation building is the Men's Gymnasium. This facility housed the Indiana Hoosiers from 1916-1928 and was brought into existence amid controversy.

With the original Assembly Hall falling into disrepair, students and faculty alike marched for a new gymnasium for the athletes. Alumni and University personnel also lobbied for its abandonment by the athletic program. The people's wishes were granted in 1914 and with a capacity of 2,000 and a cost of $200,000, the Men's Gymnasium's era began in 1916.

The first game at the gymnasium was on Jan. 19, 1917 against lowa. The Hoosiers pulled out one of the lowest scoring games in history, 12-7.

The building was the home court of consistent teams coached by the likes of Dana M. Evans and Everett Dean. Dean led his squad to the first two Big Ten Championships in the history of IU Basketball as the head coach. He led the final team to play in the building to the program's first unbeaten home season at Men's Gymnasium (11-0).

As a player, Dean called the Men's Gymnasium home and was named as Indiana University's first All-American in 1921 while playing in that facility.

The team's consistent success led to the growth of the fan base supporting the squad. The capacity of 2,000 was no longer sufficient, so the program had to be moved into another facility.

The time had come because the growth was so substantial.

OLD FIELDHOUSE

Indiana's third home, after outgrowing the Men's Gymnasium, was the Old IU Fieldhouse and it was built on East 7th Street with a price tag of $350,000. The dedication game was on December 13, 1928 when IU defeated Eastern Champion Pennsylvania, 34-26. The deciity had a portable hardwood floor and a lighting system consisting of 47 electric lamps suspended from the ceiling. Seven floodlights, three above the floor and two pointing directly at the hoops, made it easier for the players to see during the game. It was not one of the luxurious buildings of today, but head coach Everett Dean and the Hoosiers made due with what they were given.

The Old Fieldhouse was where Indiana Head Coach Everett Dean led the Hoosiers into what is now a welldocumented tradition. Dean coached the 1936 team to an undefeated home record (9-0) and a share of the Big Ten Conference crown.

The facility saw six perfect seasons including a 24game unbeaten home winning streak from 1938-1941. It was the home to the "Hurryin" Hoosiers" under head coach Branch McCracken. It was also the home to Mc-Cracken as a player where in 1930, he was named an All-American.

The fieldhouse was the home court for the 1940 NCAA National Champions and it was the place where IU attained its first 20-win season going 20-3 including a 9-0 mark at home. It was also the home to the 1953 NCAA National Champion "Hurryin Hoosiers" that went 20-4 overall and an unprecedented 11-0 in the Fieldhouse

Indiana squads amassed an amazing 234-74 overall record in the Old Fieldhouse era. Besides the two national titles, it was the home of five Big Ten Conference Championships, 20 All-Americans, 17 All-Big Ten First Team selections and three Big Ten Most Valuable Plavers

Today the Fieldhouse is named the Ora Wildemuth Intramural Center and it houses one of the most wellknown facilities in the country. The HPER buildings famed basketball courts are now residing where the tradition of Indiana University Basketball began.

NEW FIELDHOUSE

From 1960-71, Indiana played in what is known as today as Gladstein Fieldhouse, adjacent to Assembly Hall. Gladstein Fieldhouse was the fourth home of the Hoosiers

Although it was only expected to last a few seasons, it lasted 11 years. Over that time, Indiana had only two losing seasons and consistency was the name of the game for the Hoosiers.

The building still exists and it plays host to the Indiana University Indoor Track and Field squad and is utilized during graduation ceremonies. The facility has played host to four Men's Big Ten Indoor Track and Field Championships and three Women's Indoor Big Ten Championships. It is a building that is well-utilized throughout the athletic season.

The Hoosiers, under Branch McCracken for the first five years, went a combined 44-15 in those seasons. In the opening game at the Fieldhouse, Indiana defeated Butler 80-53 in front of 9,236 screaming Hoosier fans.

Players like Walt Bellamy, Tom and Dick Van Arsdale and Jimmy Rayl competed at the Fieldhouse. It was the home arena for five All-Americans, six All-Big Ten First Team selections, three Academic All-Americans and three Academic All-Big Ten selections.

The tradition of Indiana University Basketball was not altered in any way by the temporary move to the Fieldhouse, but the tradition began to escalate when the Hoosiers moved into Assembly Hall.

ASSEMBLY HALL

The 2010-11 season marked the 40th anniversary for the building that is the definition of tradition -- Assembly Hall. The Indiana Hoosiers have won over 83 percent of the games played at Branch McCracken Court.

The last unbeaten team in NCAA basketball, three NCAA Championships and 11 Big Ten Conference championship-winning teams have graced Branch McCracken Memorial Court. It has been the home to seven perfect seasons including a 56-game winning streak from 1991-1995 and it is the home of the shot that gave Calbert Cheaney the title of Big Ten career scoring leader.

Assembly Hall has played host to the pre- and postseason National Invitational Tournament on six occasions and the 1981 NCAA Midwest Regional Championship won by the Isiah Thomas-led Indiana Hoosiers. The building was also the home arena of the 1984 Olympic gold medal-winning basketball team coached by Bob Knight.

The cavernous structure was completed in 1971 and is an impressive sight. It has 15,200 fully-cushioned, theatre-style seats located on concourse and upper balcony levels and another 2,057 can be seated in the bleachers located on all four sides at court level. The north and south loge areas give disabled fans an opportunity to have a pristine vantage point for Hoosier games.

The building has a suspension roof made up of 4,500 concrete slabs each six feet long, three inches thick and 30 inches wide. Each slab weighs 500 pounds giving the roof a total weight of 1,350 tons or 2,700,000 pounds. The building holds more than 30,000 yards of concrete, six million pounds of reinforcing steel and almost 1.5 million pounds of structural steel.

Assembly Hall has played host to memorable moments such as Kirk Haston's game-winning three-point shot to knock off No. 1 Michigan State, 59-58, which marked the first time in Assembly Hall history that the Hoosiers upset a No. 1 team at the Hall.

Another memorable victory over Michigan State was the backdrop for the Hoosiers' 400th victory in the facility. IU defeated the Spartans, 78-74, in overtime on Feb. 27, 2005.

During the 2005 summer months, a $1.99-million scoreboard-video board was installed in Assembly Hall. The state-of-the art scoreboard-video board includes four video screens, four video/scoring/statistics screens, one center-hung ProAd ring, five ProTable scorer's table units, four auxiliary portal scoreboards, as well as three-sided shot clocks and a new game timing system.

During the summers of 2010 and 2011, a new roof was installed on the structure.

The tradition can be felt the instant you walk into Assembly Hall and if you have been there before you can hear Indiana, Our Indiana and Go IU! Fight! Fight! Fight! resonate off the walls and throughout the building long after you leave.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's status as one of the preeminent athletic conferences in the country also endures as an important component of the Big Ten studentathlete experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity, and the Big Ten's "Honoring Legends. Building Leaders," campaign links directly to the Big Ten mission. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its student-athletes not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well

ACADEMICS

All Big Ten universities have been granted Tier One Status by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, a distinction awarded to just over 100 universities. Big Ten schools have produced more than 1,450 Academic All-Americans, more than any other conference, including 46 in the last academic year. For the 2011 fiscal year, the Big Ten led all conferences with over $8 billion in research expenditures, more than $2 billion more than any other conference.

SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS

During the 2012-13 season, Big Ten institutions claimed seven national championships: Indiana men's soccer; Michigan men's swimming and diving; Minnesot women's ice hockey; Nebraska women's bowling; Ohio State women's rowing; and Penn State wrestling.

Over the last 10 years, the Big Ten is tied for the conference lead with national titles in 14 different NCAA-sponsored championships, including bowling, cross country, fencing, golf, gymnastics, ice hockey, lacrosse, rowing, soccer, softball, swimming and diving, track and field, volleyball and wrestling.

STUDENT-ATHLETE OPPORTUNITIES

Almost 1,400 Big Ten student-athletes and coaches have participated in the Olympics, winning at least 460 medals, including nearly 250 gold. Big Ten universities provide over $141 million direct financial aid to more than 8,200 student-athletes playing on more than 300 teams in 42 different sports. The Big Ten sponsors 26 official conference sports, 13 for men and 13 for women, including the debut of men's ice hockey as an official conference sport this academic year.

In 2014-15, men's and women's lacrosse will be added as the conference's 27th and 28th official sports, giving the Big Ten more official sports than all conferences other than the lvy League.

TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's media agreements with CBS Sports, ABC/ESPN, FOX and the Big Ten Network (BTN), nearly 1,000 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally on an annual basis.

In 2006, the Big Ten created BTN, the first national conference-owned television network. With more than 53 million subscribers in the U.S. and Canada – and more outside the Big Ten region than inside – BTN allows fans to see their teams compete regardless of where they live.

ATTENDANCE

The Big Ten leads all conferences with nearly five million alumni and more than 460,000 students. Big Ten fans are some of the nation's most supportive, with nearly 9.8 million patrons attending conference home contests during the 2012-13 seasons for football, men's and women's basketball and volleyball alone.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For the last 24 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Big Ten Basketball Tournaments, the conference holds numerous community initiatives, such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service, Officiating and Youth Football Clinics and various fund-raising efforts, including the Think Pink promotions benefitting the Pink Ribbon Connection at previous women's basketball tournaments.

UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

MICHAEL A. McROBBIE - Indiana University's 18th President

Michael McRobbie became the 18th president of Indiana University on July 1, 2007. IU is one of the largest university systems in the U.S. with eight campuses, а total budget of around $3 billion, and more than 7,000 faculty, 11,000 staff. and 110.000 students.

McRobbie joined IU in 1997 as vice president for information technology and chief information officer, and was appointed vice president for research in 2003. He was named interim provost and vice president for academic affairs for IU's Bloomington campus in 2006, and became president the following year.

As president, McRobbie has refocused IU around six Principles of Excellence — an excellent education, world-class research and scholarship, an outstanding faculty, enhanced international engagement, excellence in health sciences, and in engagement. Supporting these core principles is an essential framework of excellence in the four areas of advancement, infrastructure and facilities, information technology, and administration.

Under McRobbie's leadership, IU has seen a major expansion in the size and quality of IU's student body, a record level of expenditure, a billion dollar expansion of IU's facilities, and the completion of the $1.1 billion "Matching the Promise" endowment campaign at IU Bloomington and the $1.25 billion "IMPACT" campaign at its Indianapolis campus, which recently surpassed the $1 billion mark and is now very close to its goal. These are the first two phases of a $5 billion campaign to be completed in IU's bicentenary year of 2020.

In addition to his duties as president, McRobbie serves on several outside committees and organizations, and is presently the chair of Internet2 and immediate past chair of University Research Associates, which is responsible for Fermi Lab. He is also a member and former chair of the Big Ten Council of Presidents and Chancellors, and a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board.

McRobbie is vice chairman of the board of the Indiana University Health system — one of the largest and most highly regarded hospital systems in the U.S. — and the OneAmerica insurance company, based in Indianapolis.

McRobbie also holds faculty appointments in computer science, philosophy, cognitive science, informatics, library and information science, and computer technology, and has been an active researcher in information technology and logic over his career. He has been the principal investigator on several major grants, has published a number of books, many articles, and has served on numerous editorial boards and conference committees.

A native of Australia, McRobbie received a Ph.D. from the Australian National University in 1979, and has honorary doctorates from the University of Queensland (2007), Sung Kyun Kwan University in Korea (2008), the Australia National University (2010) and the South East European University in Macedonia (2011), which IU helped found. In 2013, Thailand's National Institute for Development Administration awarded him its Prince Naradhip Bongsprabandha Plaque for services to international education.

He was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2012 and is an honorary fellow of the Australian Academy of Humanities. In 2007, he was made a Sagamore of the Wabash, the highest honor the State of Indiana can bestow on a private individual. And, in 2010, he was made an Officer of the Order of Australia, Australia's national honors system. In 2012, he was listed as one of America's 10 most popular university presidents.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION

FRED GLASS - Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics

Indiana University President Michael A. McRobbie appointed Fred Glass Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics effective January 1, 2009, after one of the most tumultuous decades in the history of IU Athletics. The fifth athletic director in eight years, Glass was hired to heal and lead a department that had been rocked by the firing of a legendary basketball coach, the untimely death of a beloved football coach, and an infamous major NCAA infractions case that placed the entire department on probation. Since assuming this role, Glass has worked tirelessly to return III to its rightful place as one of the premier athletics departments in the

Δt press conference the announcing his appointment, Glass set out the four priorities that have been the hallmark of his tenure as athletic director: 1.) play by the rules; 2.) achieve academically and graduate student-athletes; 3.) excel athletically and win championships; and 4.) integrate athletics into the rest of the University. Building on these priorities and working with student-athletes, coaches, faculty and others Glass subsequently unveiled a creed that represents Indiana University Athletics' core values, mission statement, and strategic plan all rolled into one, The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team. It is the standard by which IU Athletics sets priorities, allocate resources, and makes decisions: We are able people of integrity who play by the rules. We reach our highest academic potential and earn Indiana University degrees. We reach our highest athletic potential and win championships. We are unselfish leaders and teammates. We represent Indiana University with passion, appreciation, respect and distinction. We are positive, responsible, inclusive and integrated with our University. We are a part of something bigger than ourselves

Now in just his fifth year as athletic director, Glass' dynamic and passionate leadership has been the driving force behind his alma mater's return to athletic success consistent with these

On the field since Glass's arrival, ten IU teams have won conference championships, 24 student-athletes have been named Big Ten Player of the Year in their respective sports (most in the conference), and the department has produced seven NCAA individual champions. In 2012-13, men's soccer won the school's 25th National Team Championship, men's basketball won the outright Big Ten title for the first time since 1993, high jumper Derek Drouin won the NCAA high jump title in both Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field, and baseball won the school's first outright Big Ten Championship in 81 years and became the first Big Ten School to go to the College World Series since 1984. For his exploits, Drouin won the Jesse Owens Award, given to the Big Ten's best male athlete (first IU Athlete since Anthony Thomason in 1990). For the first time in program history, IU had two players (Victor Oladipo and Cody Zeller) taken in the top five picks in the NBA draft. Men's soccer coach Todd Yeagley and baseball coach Tracy Smith were named National Coach of the Year in their respective sports, marking the first time in IU history that two coaches have won National Coach of the Year accolades in the s school year. Due to these and other successes, IU finished 2nd in the Men's Capital One Cup Standings for 2012-13 (best finish in school history).

Glass has also made key coaching hires in his short tenure. In the fall of 2009, Glass hired men's soccer coach Todd Yeagley who went on to win the Big Ten championship and Big Ten Coach of the Year honors in his first season at Indiana in 2010 and later the NCAA Championship in 2012. In December of 2010, Glass hired highly respected and record setting offensive coordinator Kevin Wilson from Oklahoma as Indiana's new head football coach. In 2008, Wilson won the prestigious Broyles Award for being the nation's top assistant coach. In 2012, Glass hired one of the winningest women's basketball coaches in history, Curt Miller, from Bowling Green. In his last eight years at Bowling Green, Miller's teams won the regular season or tournament championship or both every year, and Miller was named MAC Coach of the Year six times. In 2013, Glass hired Amy Berbary, one of the most respected young soccer coaches in the country to helm the women's soccer program, and U.S. Olympic Diving Coach Drew Johansen to lead Indiana's celebrated diving program.

In Glass' tenure, Indiana student-athletes have excelled in the classroom as well as on the playing field. With 11 teams earning a perfect 1,000 APR for the 2011-12 academic year, Indiana University's 24 sports comfortably exceed NCAA required standards according to the NCAA's most recent multi-year Academic Progress Rate report. The 11 programs earning a perfect score for 2011-12 were men's basketball, men's cross country, men's golf, men's soccer, periest soule in 2011 - Year en lines is seakeulan, inters soulers, country, lines is souler, men's sent men's tennis, men's outdoor track vestiling, women's goff, women's softball, women's socreand women's tennis. With perfect multi-year scores of 1,000, the IU men's basketball, men's off rand women's tennis programs were recognized for having the top APR score nationally in their respective sports. The academic success of these teams is fortunately very typical of all IU sports which routinely exceed the NCAA 925 standard by a very large margin. In the 2012-13 school year, 236 Indiana University student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten distinction.

To help generate the financial resources necessary to pursue the department's priorities, Glass has eliminated six of the eight senior staff positions he inherited freeing up over a million dollars; improved private fundraising, including securing the largest gift in the history of IU Athletics: $15 million from Bill and Gayle Cook; renegotiated a lucrative 10-year multimedia rights agreement with Learfield Sports; and negotiated a $3 million agreement to play Penn State at Fed-Ex Field, among other innovative revenue generating initiatives As a result of Glass's relentless focus on improving the game day football experience in and around Memorial Stadium, football attendance in Glass' first year as AD increased by 32%, the third largest one year percentage increase in average attendance in the country that year and the highest II Lattendance since 1992. These attendance gains have been maintained and in fact, a new attendance record was set in 2010. Indiana led the Big Ten in increased football attendance in 2012. Again focusing on preserving and improving the game atmosphere in Assembly Hall, in his first year Glass helped to double men's basketball student season ticket sales to the most in the conference- propelling Indiana to the 11th highest total attendance in the country and second highest in the conference. In 2012-2013, men's basketball attendance increased again as IU Athletics sold more student-season tickets (12,400) than any other program in the country and overall attendance ranked ninth nationally.

With the help of these additional resources, Glass has furthered the department's priorities by adding personnel to make IU's compliance staff the second largest in the conference, adding academic advisors to move IU from ninth to third in the conference in student-athlete to academic advisor ratio; building a state of the art, 25,800 square foot, $3 million academic center moving IU from the smallest to the fourth largest (and most modern) academic center in the conference; opening a 25,000 square foot strength and conditioning center, upon completion the largest facility of its kind in the Big Ten - (replacing a facility that ranked last in the conference); opening Cook Hall, the finest basketball development facility and program shrine in the country; and otherwise improving the facilities of all 24 of IU's sports programs In August 2011, Glass secured IU Board of Trustees approval for construction of new baseball and softball complexes Bart Kaufman Field and Andy Mohr Field. The $19.8 million baseball/ softball project was completed prior to the 2013 season and allowed the baseball program to host the first NCAA Regional in school history. Glass successfully guided IU Athletics off of NCAA probation in November, 2011.

To ensure that the department meets the promise of The Spirit of Indiana, Glass established The Indiana University Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Excellence Academy. The Excellence Academy integrates athletic department and university resources to assess, measure and ensure progress toward specific personal development goals. The Academy fully integrates the athletic department's academic support and life skills development programs, innovative strength and conditioning regimens, advanced sports medicine and athletic training services, expert sports psychology staff, and one of the very few full-time sports nutritionists intercollegiate athletics, along with cutting-edge resources from other parts of the university. The Excellence Academy is emerging as one of the nation's most innovative and comprehensive student-athlete development programs in the country.

In 2011, Glass established the Spirit of Indiana Showcase, an annual awards gala celebrating the top athletic and academic achievements of IU student-athletes over the last year. Glass also announced the creation of The Spirit of Indiana Director's Award that honors the senior male and female student-athletes who, on the whole, best personify the tenets of The Spirit of Indiana: 24 Sports, One Team.
Under Glass' stewardship, Indiana Athletics has been financially self-supporting. Each year of his tenure the Athletic Department has been financially self-sufficient without any special subsidy from the university, tax dollars, or student fees. In fact, the Athletic Department actually pays over $12 million to the University in tuition, room and board, books, and fees for its scholarship student-athletes

Glass loves supporting IU's student-athletes and often attends competitions and practices, including travelling on road trips with the teams. Glass enjoys being present with the studentathletes, whether it's wearing a kilt at a field hockey game as a result of a challenge with players, sitting on the bench with the volleyball and softball teams, riding the bus with the baseball team, or jumping in the pool with the women's swimming and diving team upon winning their third straight Big Ten title. He also enjoys interacting with IU fans and is a fixture at pregame tailgate gatherings and cheering with the fans in the stands.

as a university vice president, he often attends academic events on campus, including the monthly meetings of the President's Cabinet of which he is a member. Glass has established an athletics sustainability initiative with the goal of becoming "the greenest athletic an anneuss sustainability initiative with ine goal or obcoming the generiest anneus department in the Big fler. ILL Athletics finished first among Big flen schools in two categories (Greenhouse Gas and Recycling) in the EPA Gameday Challenge. He served as co-chair of Indiana University's 2010 and 2011 United Way campaigns, during which the Department of Athletics participation rate sourced from 9% to 80%. In the spring of 2011, Glass had his head shaved to stand in solidarity with kids fighting cancer at a St. Baldrick's event in Indianapolis, raising over $20,000 for the cause.

In May 2012, Glass received the Distinguished Alumni Award from IU's Robert H. McKinney School of Law. In April 2010, Glass was presented the Trevor R. Brown Award by the students of the Indiana Daily Student and the Arbutus for his contributions to the experiences of student journalists. Among his other honors and awards, Glass received the Brebeuf Jesuit President's Medal in 2007; The St. Thomas More Society Man for All Seasons Award in 2006; the 2006 Sprit of Service Community Service Award from the Archdiocese of Indianapolis; the 2005 Charles L. Whistler Award from The Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee; the 2004 Fred McCashband Outstanding Alumnus Award (Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School); and the National Catholic Education Association Distinguished Graduate Award (St. Thomas Aquinas School in Indianapolis) in 2003.

Glass is a double graduate of Indiana University and had been a well known Indianapolis lawyer and civic leader before being named a vice president and the director of intercollegiate athletics at his alma mater. Born in Indianapolis, Glass earned bachelor's and law degrees from IU in 1981 and 1984, respectively.

Glass played a central role in several major sports-related initiatives in Indianapolis, including negotiating the 30-year agreement to keep the Colts in Indianapolis, developing Lucas Oil Stadium and an expanded Indiana Convention Center, and helping to negotiate the arrangement to regularly bring Final Fours and other major NCAA events to the city. Formerly a partner in the law firm of Baker & Daniels, Glass served as chairman of the firm's management committee and as the volunteer president of the city's Capital Improvement Board. Glass also has served as Chief of Staff to then Governor Evan Bayh, Chairman of then Indianapolis Mayor Bart Peterson's transition team, and in a number of other civic, legal, and sports related positions.

Glass also served as president of the City of Indianapolis' 2011 Super Bowl Bid Committee, which although not successful for that year, has been credited with successfully laying the groundwork for the city's successful bid for 2012. At the time of Glass's appointment Tony Dungy, former head coach of the Indianapolis Colts, said, "I worked very closely with Fred on the Super Bowl effort, and I was very impressed with his vision, leadership and judgment. Indiana University has made an outstanding choice."

Upon his appointment of Glass, Indiana University President Michael McRobbie said,

"In all of these major undertakings, Fred demonstrated a remarkable talent for leadership, for mastering the details of big challenges, for diplomacy, and for consensus building. He has a well-earned reputation as someone who can get the big things done. He is exactly the person we need to take on the challenges our Athletics Department will encounter in the next decade.

Glass and his wife, Barbara, who Fred met at an IU football game and graduated from IU in 1980, are the parents of four children. They are: Katie, 27, a 2008 IU Kelley School graduate who recently married Tom Askey, also a 2008 Kelley School graduate; Joe, 25 (Marquette University `10) who is attending the Indiana University McKinney School of Law; Connor, 21 (IU class of `14); and George, 18 (IU '17). Fred, Barbara, Katie, and Tom are life members of the IU Alumni Association.

COMPLIANCE

Indiana University is extremely proud of the performance of its athletics teams both in competition and in the classroom. While our student-athletes are extremely talented, they would not reach their full potential without the encouragement and support that Hoosier fans bring to every event. We thank you for your commitment to our programs. Please be aware that many fans may meet the NCAA's definition of a representative of IU's athletics interests (commonly known as a "booster"). Much like our university personnel and studentathletes, boosters must also comply with various NCAA guidelines.

Although the NCAA rulebook is complex, everyone is expected to follow NCAA Bylaws and ask questions when unsure about the application of the rules. Any violation, no matter its size or scope, could affect a student-athlete's eligibility or Indiana University's status with the NCAA. Please help the university avoid these kinds of situations as you support our Hoosier sports programs.

While being a booster has certain privileges, these privileges do not extend to those duties specifically reserved for athletics personnel. ALL recruiting matters should be left to Indiana coaching staffs, and boosters MUST refrain from contacting any potential IU recruits, or their families, coaches or other associated individuals in regards to the prospect's future collegiate enrollment. This includes contacting prospects through the internet or via social networking sites. We encourage you instead to contact the Indiana Athletics Department, at (812) 855-1966, if you wish to recommend an individual whom you believe could contribute to our fine athletics tradition.

Recent violations at several Division I schools have forced another issue into the spotlight: benefits provided to student-athletes that are not available to the general student body. NCAA rules prohibit student-athletes from receiving any free or discounted products or services that are not otherwise available to all other IU students. Sometimes these "extra benefits" are hard to resist, but maintaining eligibility under these rules requires that our student-athletes receive only those benefits that may otherwise be provided to a normal college student, or through our athletic department as a part of their athletic participation. Please assist us in maintaining our commitment to integrity and compliance by not offering any specials, discounts or free items or services to the IU student-athletes — or recruits.

The NCAA and Indiana University take the rules pertaining to boosters and prospective student-athletes very seriously. It does not matter where contact with a prospect occurs or what means of communication is used to reach out to a prospect for recruiting purposes; it could become a rules violation in any scenario. Any improper contact with a prospect prior to that time or any offer or inducement provided to a prospect or their family is a violation of NCAA regulations and could lead to negative consequences for both Indiana and that prospective student-athlete.

The Athletics Department would like to thank you for supporting our student-athletes. Much of our success is due to you, our friends and fans. If you have any questions about the regulations applying to boosters, feel free to contact any member of the compliance office. Thanks for complying with the NCAA rules, and GO HOOSIERS!

As members of the media assigned to cover Indiana University Athletics, the IU Compliance Office invites you to review a few topics that apply to you as a media member and to our student-athletes as they compete and learn here on the Bloomington campus.

While many friends of the program remain interested in the growth of our programs and recruiting efforts of our coaching staffs, NCAA rules prohibit any member of the IU athletics staff from commenting publicly about any prospective student-athletes being recruited by our institution, other than to confirm the prospect's recruitment. Indiana is prohibited from publicizing any visits made to our campus by prospects, or otherwise making those prospects available for interviews or media comments while they are meeting with our coaches and touring campus. These rules are meant to protect the privacy of these prospects and their families as they go through the recruiting process and to provide the freedom necessary for these recruits to make their college choices without undue influence from external entities. Please respect these rules and the prospect's need for privacy during their recruitment – and our need to stay compliant with NCAA publicity of recruiting rules!

Additionally, as we prepare our student-athletes for life following their collegiate career, many will test the waters in professional sports and make agreements with agents. Under Indiana state law, these agents must register with the Indiana State Attorney General prior to making any contacts with current student-athletes. Additionally, our compliance office requires all agents to register internally, in order to better approve and guide their communications with our outgoing student-athletes. Our student-athletes may not make any verbal or written agreement with an agent if they wish to preserve their collegiate eligibility, so we work to protect those interests while they remain at IU. Please help us be vigilant in our efforts by not involving yourselves in this process, and helping us identify agent activity on our campus when you know of, or see it occurring.

As always, we thank you for your commitment to our programs and to helping us make each student-athlete's experience at IU the best it can possibly be. Your support of our compliance office and these specific rules is a large part of ensuring that IU carries on its tradition of excellence both on and off the playing field. If you have any questions about these, or other, NCAA rules please contact a member of our compliance staff or visit our website at: www.iuhoosiers.com/compliance.

PLEASE HELP IU COMPLY WITH NCAA RULES BY NOT DISTRIBUTING OR REDISTRIBUTING THIS MEDIA GUIDE TO PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES. THEIR FAMILIES OR THEIR COACHES.

TELEVISION COVERAGE

Over the last few years, the Big Ten has reached a series of milestone media agreements to provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever, including extensions with CBS (for basketball) and ABC/ESPN (for football, basketball and volleyball) and the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. The conference's new media agreements will result in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally beginning with the 2007-08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

For men's basketball, the 2013-14 season will mark the seventh consecutive year in which every Big Ten men's basketball conference and tournament game will be nationally broadcast. The Big Ten's media agreements result in more than 100 games appearing on BTN, CBS Sports, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU during the 2013-14 conference season.

CBS

In June of 2011, CBS Sports has agreed to a multi-year agreement with the Big Ten Conference extending its broadcast rights to the conference's basketball games through the 2016-17 season.

The agreement, beginning with the 2011-12 season, calls for a minimum of 24 appearances by teams from the Big Ten including three Big Ten wildcard weekends. CBS Sports will continue to broadcast the Big Ten Men's Basketball Tournament semifinal and championship games. Additional appearances by various women's teams from the conference also will be featured.

As the Network of the Big Ten, Big East, Pac-10 and Southeastern conferences, CBS Sports broadcasts the most comprehensive regular-season college basketball schedule on network television.

ESPN

In June of 2006, the Big Ten signed a new 10-year national rights contract with ABC/ ESPN. Big Ten action has been featured on ESPN since 1979, the network's first year. The new agreement, which begins during the 2007-08 season, includes approximately 60 men's basketball games to air on an ESPN network (ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU and ESPN360), including contests on Tuesday and Thursday of the conference season, plus up to eight Saturday games during conference play. For women's basketball and volleyball, a total of 100 events will appear on an ESPN network over the course of the agreement, including the championship games of the Big Ten Women's Basketball Tournament. Additionally, through ESPN's collection of new media outlets such as ESPN.com. Mobile ESPN, ESPN360 and ESPN VOD, fans will receive live events (including simulcasts). extended video highlights including inprogress games, features and more. Big Ten coverage will also be available on ESPN Classic and throughout the world through ESPN International

BIG TEN NETWORK

In June 2007, the Big Ten announced that the Big Ten Network will become the first national network to commit to "event equality" for men's and women's sports on all network-controlled media within the first three years of launch. This dedication to "event equality" highlights the Big Ten's ongoing dedication to gender equity, which is aligned with the commitment of conference institutions to provide fairness for all female student-athletes

The network is led by President Mark Silverman, a former Disney executive who came to the network after serving as the general manager and senior vice president of ABC Cable Networks Group since April of 2004, managing the company's equity in such channels as Lifetime Television, A&E Network and the History Channel, each of which recorded their best financial performance in 2005. Silverman was also responsible for developing and launching new cable channels, shows and other key initiatives.

The programming on the Big Ten Network and alternative network-controlled platforms will include, but is not limited to:

- More than 35 football games each season
- More than 105 regular season men's basketball games
- A nightly studio show including segments from each campus
- Women's sports, including basketball, volleyball, soccer and softball
- More than 170 Olympic sporting events including baseball, soccer, tennis, volleyball, swimming, diving and more
- Classic games and historical footage from ESPN and ABC libraries
- Original campus programming produced by Big Ten member universities showcasing their academic excellence, talented students and award-winning programs
- Weekly coaches shows

Located in the historic Montgomery Ward building in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first national television network to call the largest city in the Midwest its home. The original section of the building was designated as a historic landmark in 2000 for its significant role in American retail history. The space includes two studios and three control rooms as well as a 20,000 square-front office space.

In addition to airing more coverage of Big Ten sports than ever before, the Big Ten Network will also provide numerous benefits to communities around the Big Ten. Those include increased exposure for women's sports, providing positive role models for girls; a greater economic impact to the communities from added sporting event production, with the potential to generate higher attendance; and greater national exposure for the excellence that surrounds the academic endeavors of Big Ten universities, some of the most highly regarded in the nation. Also, an internship program at each of the 11 universities will offer students training for careers in sports. television and entertainment.

The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks. For more information regarding the Big Ten Network, visit www.BigTenNetwork.com.

All local television station satellite trucks should park along the drive near the west entrance of Assembly Hall.

INTERNET CREDENTIALS

Internet credentials are granted only to those websites affiliated with recognized, fully accredited local, state and national news agencies (i.e. - USA Today, CBS Sports, Bloomington Herald Times, Indianapolis Star), but credentials will not be granted to both a website and another medium for the same entity for the same event.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

- Interviews with all basketball staff members and players should be scheduled through the J.D. Campbell, Senior Assistant AD for Media Relations (812-322-1437).
- Home phone numbers for players and coaches will not be provided to the media.
   Players and coaches have been advised to not accept phone calls for basketballrelated inquiries without clearance from the media relations staff.

IU SPORTS PROPERTIES

Indiana University's Athletics Department has a long-standing partnership with IU Sports Properties. Serving as an interface of IU Athletics to corporate America, IU Sports Properties (IUSP) serves local, statewide, regional, and national advertisers. Through an array of marketing tools, IUSP gives sponsors exposure to the elite demographic group that IU fans comprise. IU Sports Properties has divisional offices in both Bloomington and Indianapolis, which represent the Indiana University Department of Athletics.

The statewide IU Radio Network is managed by IU Sports Properties and includes actual gameday radio broadcast, along with the accompanying pregame, ingame and postgame elements. The Voice of the Hoosiers, Don Fischer, has been bringing IU Athletics into the homes of Hoosier fans since 1972. Instantly recognized to Hoosier fans, Fischer has been named Indiana Broadcaster of the Year 21 times, including for his work during the 2010 season.

Fischer is so recognized, in fact, that IU fans are known to prefer his radio call alongside a muted television broadcast.

For more information on IU Sports Properties, please call (317) 262-2212 or (812) 855-4877.

Don Fischer (left) hosts a weekly radio show with head coach Tom Crean, originating from the Holiday Inn Bloomington each week starting in December.
